ADMINISTRATION PRIORITY LIKELY FOR COMMUNITY SHELTER PLAN

Decision Reported on Policy That Would Remove Emphasis From Family Protection Program.

© New York Times News Service

HYANNISPORT, Mass., Nov. 25—The Kennedy Administration was reported yesterday to have decided on a civil defense policy that will emphasize community rather than family shelters.

It was believed also that a long-range plan would be favored over a crash program. One purpose of this is to try to dissolve the crisis atmosphere in which the shelter controversy has been conducted in recent months.

Eighteen officials who work at the policy level flew to the weekend White House yesterday for conferences with President Kennedy on civil defense and two other sensitive issues, the defense budget and foreign trade.

Decisions Indicated.

The information officially released indicated that critical decisions had been made in all three areas.

Pierre Salinger, the White House press secretary, said a Department of Defense booklet on civil defense would be issued before the end of the year.

Salinger said Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara had informed the President and the other conferees that the department's assignment to find, identify and stock shelter areas for 50,000,000 Americans had moved ahead so fast that the job would be finished in June, six months ahead of schedule.

Civil defense affairs were transferred to the Department of Defense last August from the Office of Emergency Planning. Congress appropriated about $200,000,000 for the shelter study and stockpiling project.

Other Talks Planned.

Salinger said the conferees had discussed the booklet being prepared by the department and that some changes were made. There will be further discussions in about a week, he added.

He declined to talk about the contents of the booklet, but emphasized that a great deal of progress had been made in providing guidance to the American public on civil defense measures.

The decision to emphasize community protection facilities would not necessarily mean a great new construction program. Officials were said to feel that the public buildings and other large structures that will be constructed in the normal course of events should include provision for community shelters.

A policy that advocated family shelters, some members of the Administration contended, would leave poorer citizens without protection and might lead to demands that the Government finance protection for all.

FIRING OF TITAN CANCELED

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif., Nov. 25 (UPI)—An attempt to launch a Titan long-range missile 4000 miles over the Pacific was canceled yesterday two minutes before launching time because of technical reasons.

The Air Force said the test was not immediately rescheduled.

Two St. Louis U. Doctors Fired For Protest on Hospital Policy

Dr. J. G. Janney Jr. and Dr. W. F. Melick Had Called 149 Other Dismissals by Dean 'Intolerable.'

Two members of the St. Louis University Medical School faculty have been dismissed for protesting against the school's new policy of requiring clinical teachers to send private patients to hospitals in the university medical center, they said yesterday. This policy led to dismissal of 149 part-time faculty members last month.

Dr. James G. Janney Jr. and Dr. William F. Melick were fired after they denounced the dismissals as "an intolerable action" on the part of Dean James W. Colbert Jr.

Dr. Janney, associate professor of clinical medicine and director of the cardiology section, had been a member of the faculty for 13 years. Dr. Melick, associate professor of clinical urology and director of the urology department, had been teaching for 21 years.

The two, with nine other faculty members, signed a statement of protest that was read Monday night at a St. Mary's Hospital staff meeting. Dr. Janney spoke in support of the statement, but Dr. Melick did not speak.

The dean, who was not present at the meeting, summoned the two to his office the next day and informed them that they were dismissed for opposing the accepted policy of the university, Dr. Janney said. He reported it was not made clear why punitive action was taken against these two signers and not against the nine others.

The controversy was reviewed last night at a meeting of the medical school administrative board with the dean and the university president, the Very Rev. Paul C. Reinert S.J. A university spokesman announced that a majority of the board voted to uphold the dean's dismissal of teachers last month. Whether the board took any action on the cases of Dr. Janney and Dr. Melick was not disclosed.

The statement opposing the

IT'S TRUE: MAN IN WHEEL CHAIR ON DUAL HIGHWAY

BRANDON, Fla., Nov. 25 (AP)—Deputy Sheriff Johnny Caccitore was dispatched to investigate the report that a man was traveling along State Route 60 straddling the centerline in a wheel chair.

Caccitore found an elderly resident of Tampa doing just that—riding his wheel chair right in the center of the westbound lanes of the dual highway.

The man told the deputy he needed some exercise and the highway seemed a likely place to get it. He said he was staying on the center line so he could keep an eye on automobiles on both sides of him.

"I believe I convinced him that his thinking was in error and he promised not to do it again," said Caccitore in his report.

SLIGHT DECLINE IN MEMBERSHIP OF U.S. UNIONS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Union membership declined slightly in 1960, the Department of Labor said yesterday. The department reported also a small but steady decline in the percentage of the labor force belonging to unions.

There were 17,049,000 American in unions in 1960, a decrease of 68,000 from 1959 but an increase of 36,000 since 1958, the department said.

The union membership represented 23.3 per cent of the total labor force of 73,126,000 in 1960. In 1959 it was 23.8 per cent and in 1958 it was 23.9 per cent. In 1953 the 16,948,000 union members represented 25.2 per cent of the total labor force.

The department said national and international unions with headquarters in the United States number 18,117,000 members, with more than 1,000,000 members outside the United States, mostly in Canada.

$11,000 REWARD FOR CALIFORNIA FIRE FIGHTERS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25 (AP)—Residents have rewarded workers of "the miracle of Mandeville canyon" with more than $11,000.

Singer Dennis Day, representing his fellow Mandeville canyon residents, presented the money to the Los Angeles Fire and Police Relief Association yesterday.

The fund drive was begun in appreciation of the efforts of firemen and policemen, who managed to save every home in Mandeville canyon from the disastrous fire three weeks ago.

KENNEDY GIVES INTERVIEW TO SOVIET EDITOR

Hopes His Remarks to Khrushchev Son-in-Law Will Be Read by Russian People.

HYANNISPORT, Mass., Nov. 25 (AP)—For the first time, a Russian journalist got an exclusive interview today with an American President.

Alexei T. Adzhubei, Premier Khrushchev's son-in-law, began questioning President Kennedy. Adzhubei is editor of Izvestia, the Soviet government's official newspaper.

The interview took place in the living room of the president's weekend White House.

In advance of the interview, Adzhubei, speaking through an interpreter, said he hoped it would improve United States-Russian relations.

Mr. Kennedy's primary motive is granting the interview is to give him a chance to get his views directly to the Russian people.

Adzhubei, by virtue of his editorship of the Soviet Union's official organ and his marriage to Khrushchev's daughter, is regarded as his country's foremost journalist.

Adzhubei, although he speaks some English and appears to understand it without difficulty, answered reporters' questions through Georgi Bolshikov, editor of Russia's English language magazine, U.S.S.R., published in this country.

Asked what he hoped to accomplish by the interview, Adzhubei said, "As a newspaper man, as a journalist, as a Soviet citizen, I would like very much that this interview facilitate improvement of our relations because the destiny of the world depends upon relations between our nations."

He added he hoped to publish the text of the interview, but said this was up to the President to decide.

Pierre Salinger, White House Press secretary, made it clear that he not only had no objection to publication of the text, but would welcome it. Salinger said Mr. Kennedy had fixed no time limit on the interview.

Americans will not get to know what Mr. Kennedy said until Izvestia — which translates as News — has published it. After the text, as published in Izvestia, has been translated and com-

RUSSIA AGREES ON POSTPONING DEFENSE TALKS WITH FINLAND

Accepts Delay After Kekkenon Says Consultations Would Increase Tension in Scandinavia.

By HENRY SHAPIRO

MOSCOW, Nov. 25 (UPI)—A joint Finnish - Soviet communique issued today said the Soviet Union had agreed to postpone military consultations with Finland after President Urho Kekkonen indicated such talks would increase tension in Scandinavia.

The communique was published after a dramatic meeting in Novosibirsk yesterday between the Finnish President and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Russia proposed on Oct. 30 that military consultations be held to combat what the Kremlin called a growing danger to Soviet and Finnish frontiers from an alleged West German military build-up in Northern Europe and the Baltic area.

Today's communique said Kekkonen told Khrushchev that military consultations presumably would lead to Soviet requests for concessions which "would cause a certain amount of tension and war psychosis in the Scandinavian countries."

Observers in Moscow said they believed Kekkonen's mention of concessions referred to possible Soviet bases on Finnish soil.

'Great Satisfaction.'

The official Tass news agency said Kekkonen told a luncheon gathering in the Kremlin palace in Moscow today that he found "great satisfaction" in his talks with Khrushchev.

According to Tass, Kekkonen said he noted "once more that the Soviet Union wishes to continue supporting the neutral foreign policy adopted by Finland."

The communique said Khrushchev expressed confidence in Kekkonen's ability to continue Finland's present policy of friendship toward the Soviet Union.

"The Soviet government," it said, "believes it can postpone the military consultations which the Soviet government had suggested."

Khrushchev also remarked, the communique said, that both Russia and Finland should continue to watch developments in the Baltic and northern Europe.

The communique expressed the hope that Finland would, if necessary, submit to the Soviet Union its ideas on measures to protect the borders of the two countries.

National Unity Move.

The announcement followed a national unity move by Kekkonen's chief opponent in forthcoming presidential elections at home. Olavi Honka, right-wing candidate, announced his withdrawal from the race "in the interests of the country."

The new Finnish elections had been called for early next year shortly after Finland received the Soviet note suggesting joint military consultations.

The opposition candidate's withdrawal was announced last night after Parliament Speaker Karl-August Fagerholm proposed that Kekkonen be re-elected to a six-year term because of the need for national unity in the light of the Soviet demand for guarantees of continued neutrality.

Kekkonen returned to Moscow this morning after his meeting with Khrushchev in Siberia. Tass news agency said Khrushchev remained in Novosibirsk to attend a farm workers conference which opened today.

During Kekkonen's one-day meeting with Khrushchev, they

U.S. GOLD STOCKS REDUCED IN WEEK BY $300,000,000

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (UPI)—The New York Federal Reserve Bank reported yesterday that United States gold stocks fell by $300,000,000 in the week that ended Wednesday. It was the worst one-week decline on record.

This brought the nation's gold reserves to $16,976,000,000, the lowest level they have reached since Oct. 11, 1939.

The Treasury said that nearly all of the $300,000,000 that just left the country was sold to Great Britain to provide additional gold backing for the British pound. This transaction was described as a "one-shot" deal that did not show any trend by dollar-holders overseas to demand gold in payment for dollars.

ROCKEFELLER SEARCH SPURRED BY FINDING TANK

Governor Delays Leaving New Guinea After Can Son Might Have Used Turns Up.

HOLLANDIA, Dutch New Guinea, Nov. 25 (AP)—A Dutch navy ship found a gasoline tank off New Guinea's southern coast today, spurring the week-long search for missing Michael Rockefeller.

The 23-year-old son of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller had used a gasoline tank and an empty gasoline can in trying to swim to shore Sunday after his native craft capsized.

The Dutch Royal Navy mapping vessel Snellius, which picked up the tank, reported so far it has not been determined if the tank was the one used by young Rockefeller.

But the development prompted the Governor, who flew to New Guinea to help in the search, to cancel plans to fly home tomorrow. He will continue to stay for an undisclosed period in the area where his son vanished.

The ship, taking part in the great sea and land search, reported the tank was found 20 miles north of Frederik Hendrik Island.

This is south of the area of Atsj, where young Rockefeller tried to swim ashore. Prevailing currents would carry the tank from that area to the region of Frederik Hendrik Island.

F. R. J. Eibrink Jansen, Dutch commissioner in southern New Guinea who is leading the search, said there was an even chance that Rockefeller would be found alive.

"If he succeeded in reaching the shore and making his way to a remote village," Jansen said, "it could take 10 days before news of his whereabouts was received by the authorities."

Planes, ships and thousands of men, including natives, are taking part in the giant hunt covering 150 miles of shoreline from north of the Eilenden river to Frederik Hendrik island.

At his base as Merauke the New York Governor declined a United States offer to send Navy patrol planes and a helicopter-equipped aircraft carrier to join in the search.

Rockefeller said he felt the two helicopters from the Australian air force and one from a Netherlands New Guinea oil company due at the search scene would be adequate. The United States offer was contained in a cable from Adm. Harry D. Felt, commander of United States forces in the Pacific.

269 AUTO DEATHS FOR HOLIDAY SO FAR; 3 IN MISSOURI

CHICAGO, Nov. 25 (AP)—Traffic fatalities reached a total of 269 today with the four-day Thanksgiving holiday in its third day. In addition, 28 persons died in fires and 47 in miscellaneous accidents, a total of 344 fatalities. The 102-hour holiday period that began at 6 p.m. Wednesday ends at midnight Sunday.

Missouri listed three highway deaths; Illinois reported nine and two persons killed miscellaneous accidents.

The National Safety Council said traffic deaths during a non-holiday four-day weekend would total 450 at this time of year. A survey by the Associated Press on a 102-hour non-holiday weekend showed 462 traffic deaths, 37 killed in fires and 106 fatalities in miscellaneous mishaps for a total of 605.

On the 1960 Thanksgiving weekend there were 442 traffic deaths.

JOHN KENNEDY JR., TODAY, TO MISS BIRTHDAY PARTY

HYANNISPORT, Mass., Nov. 25 (AP)—John Fitzgerald Kennedy Jr. is one year old today. He is spending the day in the White House in Washington in charge of nurse Maud Shaw rather than with his parents and sister, Caroline, at the Kennedy oceanfront home here.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger told reporters last night plans had been abandoned to bring John Jr. to Hyannisport for a joint birthday party with Caroline, who will become four on Monday. Salinger said John Jr.'s slight cold persists.

U.N. DROPS PLAN TO DISARM CONGO UNITS IN KILLINGS

Task of Punishing Murderers of 13 Italian Airmen Is Given to Adoula.

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo, Nov. 25 (AP)—The United Nations Command abandoned today its plan to disarm Congolese army mutineers at Kindu who killed 13 Italian airmen. The action gave the Congo government the task of punishing the murderers.

Dr. Sture Linner, head of the U.N. Congo operation, suggested in a letter to Premier Cyrille Adoula that the Leopoldville government round up the troops that killed the Italians and dismembered their bodies two weeks ago. Linner recommended taking the troops to the capital for interrogation and punishment.

Linner said it appeared inopportune for the U.N. to try to disarm the 2000-man Congo garrison at Kindu airport where the massacre took place.

Linner said the only purpose in disarming the troops would have been to allow an investigation to find the killers. He noted Adoula already purports to know which units were guilty.

In an earlier letter, Adoula

TAKES A STRONG POSITION AFTER LIMITED STAND BY U.N. COUNCIL

Russians Announce After Vote on Resolutions That They Will Keep Close Watch on Secretary.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Nov. 25 (AP)—Acting Secretary General U Thant made it plain last night that he will use his powers to train the Congo army and stamp out secessionist moves in any part of that country, despite Soviet efforts to limit United Nations authority.

Thant spelled out his position in his first speech to the Security Council since he became U.N. chief. Two Soviet vetoes killed United States efforts to give him a broader hand in The Congo.

The Soviet Union warned Thant that it would be watching closely to make sure he does not go beyond the mandate of the Council.

The 11-nation Council finally adopted a watered-down Asian-African resolution demanding that secessionist activities cease forthwith in Katanga alone and empowering Thant to use force if need be to drive foreign mercenaries out of that province. The vote was 9 to 0. Britain and France abstained.

Amendments That Lost.

The Russians used the veto to defeat United States amendments which would have had the Council deprecate "all armed action" against the central Congo government and which would have authorized Thant to help the state reorganize and retrain its army.

The vetoed amendments could be interpreted as empowering the U.N. to move against any uprising by Congo leftist leader Antoine Gizenga.

Observers expressed belief, however, that the Soviet vetoes were checkmated by Thant's assertion that the U.N. force should suppress "all armed activities" and secessionist moves anywhere.

The Burmese acting Secretary General also said steps must be taken toward the "training and reorganization" of the Congo armed forces.

He called on all member governments to give the U.N. the financial support needed to carry out the costly Congo operation. The Soviet Union, France nad many other nations refuse to pay their share of the bill.

Resolutions Cited.

In calling for action against all uprisings in The Congo, Thant made clear he was carrying out all resolutions of the General Assembly and the Council and not just the Katanga proposal.

After Thant finished speaking, Soviet delegate Valerian Zorin expressed hope the acting Secretary General would "act in accordance with this resolution in co-operation with his chief advisers as he had announced when he was appointed."

Zorin then issued a thinly veiled warning that Thant would be in trouble if he went beyond the Council mandate.

"The main task," he said, "is to implement scrupulously the resolution as adopted.

"If they (U Thant's staff members) interpret in the light of statements of delegates backing proposals that were not adopted, there will be sad results for the United Nations."

Criticism of West.

Zorin criticized France and Britain for abstaining on the resolution put in by Ceylon, Liberia and the United Arab Republic. He criticized the United States for its announced reluctance to support it.

United States Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said just before the ballot that he would vote for the resolution so that Congo Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko should "not return to his tormented country empty-handed."

Bomboko had warned the Council that if it failed to take any concrete action it would be handing Katanga President Moise Tshombe "victory on a platter."

The vote came after two weeks of stormy debate and dogged but futile efforts to work out a compromise that would win Soviet support.

The resolution:

1. Declared all secessionist activities in The Congo to be contrary to the Congolese con-

Holds Off Police, but Drops Pistols on Mother's Command

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 25 (AP)—A man held off police at gunpoint two hours, then dropped his pistols and surrendered today after his mother commanded: "Junior, you put those things down."

Oren Gamble Jr., 31 years old, locked himself in his home with his 5-year-old son, Gene, after an argument with his wife.

He told police he wanted to die and would take someone with him. He said he would shoot the boy if police used their weapons.

Gamble, owner of a gun collection, fired two shots into the floor while talking on the telephone with his wife, who was at a neighbor's home. He told her he would kill their son if she did not come home.

The man's mother, Mrs. Hazel Gamble, was summoned by police. She went to the neighbor's home and telephoned her son, telling him. "Junior, you come out of there. I'm about sick."

Gamble walked out on the porch carrying two pistols. He fired a shot into the air.

His mother emerged from the neighbor's home and said: "Junior, you put those things down."

Gamble hesitated, then dropped the weapons.

Police found the boy asleep upstairs. Near him were two shotguns, a rifle and an automatic pistol, all loaded. In a closet were a sawed-off shotgun, three rifles and three pistols. Another pistol was in the living room. Gamble was held for investigation.

Burglar Routed by 4 Children, Hammer, Frying Pan, Rolling Pin

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 25 (UPI)—A burglar crawled through a bathroom window in Cambridge and dropped to the floor. Bedlam broke loose.

The lights snapped on and he was slugged on the head with a hammer. A frying pan caught him flush on the chin.

The man struggled to his feet and raced into the kitchen. Wrong place. He saw the rolling pin in midair too late. He fled out the front door into the darkness.

His assailants? Four children, Linda Hamlin, 13 years old, and three neighbors who were visiting her, Patricia Coyne, 14; her sister, Maureen, 12, and brother, Peter, 10.

"From what I heard," Police Sgt. George Yore said after viewing the scene, "that guy was lucky he wasn't hurt seriously."

DEAN SAYS U.S. WILL CONTINUE TESTING DURING GENEVA TALKS

Russian Warning Won't Halt Blasts—America to Take Hard Line at Conference Table.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (UPI)—Arthur H. Dean, chief United States nuclear negotiator, said last night the United States would set off nuclear explosions during the upcoming Geneva test ban talks despite Russian warnings.

"Our slogan will be 'Test and talk,'" Dean said. "We absolutely will have tests while the talks are going on."

Dean, who spoke at a press conference on the eve of his departure tonight for the talks which open Tuesday, indicated also the United States was going to take a hard line at the Geneva conference table.

"If there's going to be any treaty," he said, "the offers will have to come from Russia." The United States will not alter the treaty proposals it already has made, he said.

Communist Warning.

Russia accepted this week the United States-British proposal to resume nuclear test ban talks that were broken off Sept. 9 when Russia resumed atmospheric tests. In accepting, the Communists warned the Western powers against new tests of their own. Russia suggested another voluntary moratorium, but Dean indicated this was unacceptable.

The negotiator said it was up to President Kennedy whether the United States nuclear tests would include atmospheric explosions, but he added that "we reserve complete freedom of action."

He said he doubted that America would put up with another long test talk series like the fruitless three years of the first round.

Dean had said earlier yesterday in the United Nations that Russia actually had exploded 50 nuclear shots in the atmosphere, 20 more than previously disclosed, including the 55-magaton blast.

Dean said the United States had discovered that the previous moratorium had served merely as a cloak for Russia's "secret preparations" for its new series.

West's Objections Ignored.

By the Associated Press.

Dean made his statement on Russian tests after Asian, African and Soviet bloc countries forced adoption in the General Assembly of two nuclear prohibition measures, sweeping aside Western objections to uncontrolled and partial bans.

By a 55-to-20 vote with 26 abstentions, the Assembly approved an Asian-African measure to declare the use of nuclear weapons in war a crime against mankind and a violation of the U.N. Charter.

The United States, Britain and France voted against the resolution because, they said, they could not accept any proposal calling for an uncontrolled, uninspected prohibition of the use of nuclear weapons, especially in self-defense.

The Assembly voted 55-to-0, with 44 abstentions to approve a resolution that would make the African continent a zone free of nuclear weapons by forbidding testing or using any part of Africa as a nuclear weapons base or storage point. The United States, Britain, France and 10 new African nations of the French community abstained.

KIDNAPING SUSPECTS SEIZED QUICKLY AFTER ROBBERY

The New York Herald Tribune—Post-Dispatch Special Dispatch.

HICKSVILLE, N.Y., Nov. 25—Two electronic company officers were kidnaped in their own automobile yesterday as they returned to the plant with the company's $9000 weekly payroll. Half an hour later police had rescued them, captured two men and recovered the money.

Credit went to the plant's telephone switchboard operator who witnessed the holdup and called police. A radio policeman saw the car, trailed it and radioed its position.

Arrested and charged with kidnaping and robbery were Robert Soucy and Walter Schults, both of Brooklyn.

NATIVES IN CANOES GREET ELIZABETH AT FREETOWN

FREETOWN, Sierra Leone, Nov. 25 (AP)—Natives paddled canoes out into the wide Rokel river estuary today to greet Queen Elizabeth II. One craft almost got caught in the royal yacht's churning propellers, but was pushed clear without damage.

A 21-gun salute from Freetown's Tower hill thundered a welcome when the yacht Britannia entered the seven-mile estuary for the start of the Queen's five-day state visit to this newly independent West African nation, a former British colony.

IMPERIALISM LAID TO U.S. IN S. VIET NAM

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, Nov. 25 (AP)—Saigon newspapers, which frequently reflect the views of President Ngo Dinh Diem's government, accused the United States today of showing an imperialistic policy toward South Viet Nam.

An editorial in the daily Thoi Bao, reprinted in part by the daily Tuo Do, suggested the United States was trying to govern South Viet Nam and warned against attempts to make a guinea pig of the republic.

"Is the American Government willing to help only on the conditions that it exploit Viet Nam with a policy of imperialism?" the editorial asked.

'Face of Imperialism.'

"The vague policy of the United States concerning Cuba and Laos has shown us the face of imperialism.

"We have grounds for believing the Americans will help Viet Nam only on conditions, and the main condition is to be able to govern this country under the usual policy of the imperialists," the editorial continued.

"If it is not satisfied, the United States will turn Viet Nam into a guinea pig, agitating the internal situation as it did in Laos, then proceeding to another Cuba case, that is, pushing Viet Nam into the Communist mouth.

'Reactionary Policy.'

"We must point out that this ambition of the United States to govern the people of Viet Nam—if such as it is—is an outmoded and reactionary policy.

"The people of Viet Nam are free people and cannot be used as pawns by the imperialists," the editorial concluded.

The editorial criticism of the United States, which has given more than two billion dollars in aid to the southeast Asian nation, came as new talks were under way between United States Ambassador Frederick E. Nolting Jr. and the government regarding increased United States military aid. Nolting has conferred with President Diem several times since Monday.

Carrier Sails for Saigon With Copters, 400 Troops.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25 (UPI)—The Military Sea Transportation Service has confirmed that an American aircraft carrier sailed Tuesday for Saigon, South Viet Nam, with a cargo of troops and helicopters.

The Army said the troops included the Fifty-seventh Light Helicopter Company from Fort Lewis, Wash., and the Eighth Light Helicopter Company from Fort Bragg, N.C. The strength of the two units is at least 40 helicopters and 400 troops.

The MSTS said the troops sailed aboard the small carrier Core about 24 hours earlier than planned, because "she was unloaded and reloaded sooner than expected."

STATEMENT ON ADENAUER: COLD, GRIPPE-LIKE EFFECTS

BONN, Nov. 25 (UPI)—Chancellor Adenauer was officially reported today to be suffering from a "cold with grippe-like effects."

The federal press office said the 85-year-old Chancellor would have to remain at home several more days, particularly if the present foggy weather continues.

He caught the cold when in Washington to confer with President Kennedy earlier this week.

HIJACKING TRIAL IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Mexican government said last night Cuba has agreed to turn over to Mexico a young French-Algerian, Charles Albert Cadon, to stand trial for the hijacking of a Pan American jet plane last Aug. 9.

Cadon has been in custody of the Cuban government since the plane, whose passengers included Colombian Foreign Minister Julio Cesar Turbay, was diverted to Havana after taking off from Mexico City on a flight to Guatemala. The plane and passengers were released and Cadon was arrested by Cuban authorities.

stitution and Council decisions and demanded that all such activities "now taking place in Katanga shall cease forthwith";

2. Urged all U.N. members to lend their support to the Congolese central government in conformity with the U.N. charter and U.N. decisions—which, among other things, uphold "the territorial integrity" of The Congo;

3. Asked all countries to refrain from supplying war materials to The Congo and to keep their nationals from supplying them;

4. Authorized the Secretary General "to take vigorous action, including the use of a requisite measure of force, if necessary" to deport foreign mercenaries in The Congo or arrest them for trial.

Before the final vote, the Council adopted United States amendments rejecting Katanga's claim to sovereignty, giving exclusive recognition to the central government and regretting "actions of violence against U.N. personnel"—like the recent massacre of Italian airmen in the U.N. force.

Another U.S. Setback.

Besides the two amendments that Russia vetoed, a third United States amendment also failed. It would have authorized the Secretary General "to remove or to prevent the use" against the United Nations or The Congo of any warplanes or other weapons illegally in Katanga "or any other region of The Congo."

This proposal died after the Soviet Union lost a bid to knock out the phrase extending its application beyond Katanga.

Zorin, presiding, first announced that the unchanged United States proposal had died on a 7-to-1 vote because the negative vote came from a permanent Council member, the Soviet Union. This would have been a veto.

Later he said the vote had been 6 to 1 because in addition to three abstainers, one Council member had not participated—thus depriving the proposition of the seven votes necessary to pass. The abstainers were Britain, France and the United Arab Republic. The non-participant was Ceylon.

Last night's vetoes were the ninety-sixth and ninety-seventh the Soviet Union has cast in the 16-year history of the United Nations.

pared with the official United States transcript, it will be released to the United States press.

Three American newspapermen have had interviews with Khrushchev this year—columnists Walter Lippmann and Drew Pearson and C. L. Sultzberger of the New York Times. Their reports were widely published in this country.

Mr. Kennedy is represented as hopeful that what he tells Adzhubei will get similar dissemination in Russia.

Along with Mr. Kennedy and Adzhubei and his interpreter Bolshikov, others at the interview will be Alexander Akalovsky, a State Department Russian language expert; Salinger and Jack Romagn , official White House shorthand reporter. A copy of Romagna's text will be turned over to the Izvestia editor for his use.

STEVENSON GOING TO TRINIDAD TO VISIT FRONDIZI

HYANNISPORT, Mass., Nov. 25 (AP)—The White House announced today that Adlai Stevenson, United States ambassador to the United Nations, would fly to Trinidad tomorrow for a conference with President Arturo Frondizi of Argentina.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger announced here, where President Kennedy is spending the Thanksgiving weekend, that Stevenson was making the trip at the President's request.

Salinger said Stevenson and Frondizi would discuss economic projects which were not resolved during recent conversations the President and Frondizi had in New York when Mr. Kennedy addressed the United Nations.

Stevenson and Frondizi will confer in Port of Spain. Frondizi is visiting in Trinidad.

CALLS FOR BILLION MORE FOR EQUIPMENT FOR ARMY

YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 25 (AP)—Representative Alvin E. O'Konski (Rep.), Wisconsin, called today for a billion dollar increase in the Army's budget for supplies and equipment to meet standards he says are needed for units recently called for active duty.

Withdrawing his demand for a congressional investigation of what he said were shortages and mismanagement at Fort Lewis, Wash., for Wisconsin's Thirty-second Division, he said that nevertheless a $25,000,000 expenditure was needed for that division alone.

O'Konski made a brief inspection of the division before dark yesterday and said he found men lacking up-to-date weapons and equipment. He said M-14 rifles are about 10 years old but he found men of the Thirty-second using M-1s, which predate the M-14s. He also said there are more modern tanks available than he found in use.

Training without proper equipment is a "waste of time," O'Konski said. "There should be no call-up unless the Army is ready for the additional personnel," he insisted.

LANDON TO VISIT KENNEDY

HYANNISPORT, Mass., Nov. 25 (AP)—President Kennedy has invited former Kansas Gov. Alf M. Landon to visit him in the White House on Monday.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger said Mr. Kennedy, on learning Landon would be in Washington Dec. 8 for a speech before the National Press Club, said he would like Landon to call on him. Landon was Republican nominee for President in 1936.

TRUJILLOS SAID TO HAVE FLED WITH MILLIONS

Freezing of Family's Bank Accounts Is Urged by Dominican Radio Station.

SANTO DOMINGO, Nov. 25 (AP)—Reports of heavy Dominican bank withdrawals by exiled Trujillos stirred up more controversy in this troubled nation today.

The anti-Trujillo radio station Voz del Tropico charged that Gen. Jose Arismendi Trujillo, a brother of the late dictator, Rafael Trujillo, withdrew $2,000,000 from the state-owned Bank of Reserves before he flew to the United States last Monday. Other sources said he took $7,000,000.

The station urged that the government of President Joaquin Balaguer freeze all bank accounts of the Trujillo family members who were ordered expelled by Balaguer last Sunday. It denounced the reported withdrawals as a punishable crime.

Voz del Tropico said the Dominican peso, officially valued at $1, had dropped to 3 cents on the international market because of low foreign exchange holdings.

Heavy Defense Spending.

The Dominican Republic enjoyed a favorable trade balance for years under Trujillo, but its reserves began to decline when he stepped up defense spending on the emergence of the Fidel Castro regime in Cuba. Observers estimate he spent up to $50,000,000 for foreign arms and planes.

Another station broadcast unconfirmed reports that $90,000,000 had been recovered aboard the Trujillo family yacht Angelita. It said the vessel had been captured and returned here, but gave no further details.

Jose Arismendi Trujillo and his brother, Hector, checked into luxury hotels at Miami Beach after their arrival Monday aboard a chartered plane. Other family members and servants accompanied them.

The assassinated dictator's son, Gen. Rafael L. Trujillo Jr., sailed into exile aboard his luxury yacht. He is now in Paris, one of his favorite spots before his father named him chief of the armed forces. Rafael Jr. resigned 10 days ago.

The political unrest brought United States warships steaming offshore and led to the appointment by Balaguer of high-ranking air force officers to government posts.

Visit by U.S. Diplomat.

Arturo Morales Carrion, deputy assistant United States Secretary of State for Latin American affairs, arrived unannounced yesterday as the American vessels continued their patrol. There was no immediate report on the purpose of his visit.

It came as Balaguer conferred with opposition political leaders in an effort to lead the nation out of the crisis. He has appealed for public confidence in the government and says he is working toward a formula which would satisfy opposition factions —apparently a coalition government.

The capital was quiet yesterday after two days of demonstrations and mob violence which prompted a dusk-to-dawn curfew.

The armed forces stepped in and assumed protective custody of the Trujillo family's vast private and commercial possessions—once estimated to be worth more than $400,000,000—after looters had stripped family homes of all they could carry.

Street vendors did a thriving business in television sets, movie cameras and freezers.

The government in one action seized radio station Voz Dominicana, owned by Jose Arismendi Trujillo, and placed it under the secretary of education.

Pauling at Red Celebration.

MOSCOW, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Soviet news agency Tass said Dr. Linus C. Pauling, Nobel prize-winning United States scientist, attended a meeting in Leningard yesterday commemorating the 250th anniversary of the birth of Russian scientist Mikhail Lomonosov.

West Berliners Divided on U.S. Giving Train Stowaway to Reds

Gen. Clay Takes Position Americans Had No Choice—East Germans Say Incident Could Have Been Avoided.

BERLIN, Nov. 25 (AP)—West Berliners were divided today on whether United States authorities should have turned over to the Communists a refugee who stowed away on an American military train traveling through East Germany.

Some Berliners were angry at United States authorities; others accepted the explanation of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President Kennedy's envoy to Berlin, that there was nothing else the Americans could have done as the United States does not have extraterritorial rights on the trains.

"Deep bitterness among the refugees at Marienfelde camp," said the headline on the front page of Nachtdepesche.

Brandt Viewpoint.

A spokesman for Mayor Willy Brandt made it clear that he saw the incident from a different viewpoint than Gen. Clay.

"The Americans have to deal with the legal side of it," the spokesman said. "With the Berliners, their feelings are uppermost—and the Mayor is a Berliner, too."

On Thanksgiving eve the Soviets halted the train, bound from Berlin to Frankfurt. There were 80 Americans aboard and an East German named Siegfried Pump, who sneaked aboard in an attempt to escape to the West. The Communists said they wanted Pump for burglary.

14-Hour Delay.

An American spokesman said a Soviet officer asked that Pump be turned over, warning the train would not be cleared for the trip to West Germany otherwise. After 14 hours a United States colonel arrived from Berlin, turned Pump over to a Soviet officer and the train was released.

The East German Communists say this would not have been necessary if American authorities had shown "proper respect" for East German authority.

The United States does not recognize the East German regime.

"We are sorry," said an editorial in the Communist daily Neues Deutschland, "that the people in the train had to make an unscheduled halt in Marienborn (East Germany). They could have been spared that if American military authorities had shown immediate respect for the sovereignty and legal order of the German Democratic Republic, and not after long reflection on the situation."

Deals Only With Soviets.

The United States refuses to deal with the East German regime—only with the Soviet occupation forces.

The top Soviet officer in East Berlin, Col. Andrei I. Solovyev, visited West Berlin yesterday for an hour's talk with his American opposite, Maj. Gen. Albert Watson II. Both are city commandants.

The meeting was at Solovyev's request, a United States spokesman said. He declined to reveal what went on, except that matters of mutual interest were discussed.

The spokesman said Solovyev asked for the meeting earlier this week. He has received about a dozen protests from United States, British and French commandants since the East German Communists started their Berlin wall Aug. 13. The Russian apparently asked for the appointment before the United States Army train was delayed.

East German Major Defects When on Border Duty.

BAD HERSFELD, Germany, Nov. 25 (UPI)—An East German army major defected to West Germany when on border duty, West German border police said last night.

The major, whose name was withheld, asked for political asylum. He said he belonged to an East German engineer unit which had been fortifying the Iron Curtain border in the Hersfeld area.

GEORGE SALINGER MARRIAGE TO SECRETARY IS ANNULLED

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25 (AP)—After a three-minute hearing, Superior Court Judge Herman A. Van Der Zee yesterday annulled the marriage of George Salinger and Carmen Molina.

Miss Molina, 37 years old, a secretary, testified she learned two days after the Nov. 9 marriage in Reno that Salinger, 38, was already married and had four children. Salinger, a brother of Pierre Salinger, President Kennedy's press secretary, is a bartender.

MACMILLAN, DE GAULLE MEET AGAIN ON BERLIN

French President Reported Relaxing Opposition to East-West Talks on Issue.

LONDON, Nov. 25 (UPI) — Prime Minister Macmillan and French President De Gaulle opened another round of meetings today in their search for a united policy on Berlin in advance of a possible East-West meeting on the issue.

Macmillan was understood to be taking the line with De Gaulle that failure to negotiate with Soviet Premier Khrushchev soon might precipitate a new Berlin crisis with unforseeable consequences.

High French officials said in Paris that De Gaulle might be relaxing his opposition to East-West talks on Berlin in the near future.

They said a factor in this relaxation was Khrushchev's removal of the deadline from the peace treaty he has threatened to sign with East Germany.

Because of the recent French attempt on De Gaulle's life, policemen and dogs ringed Macmillan's country home near here as the two leaders began their second and final day of talks.

Security precautions were the toughest seen here since Khrushchev visited Britain in 1953.

The two leaders reviewed also Britain's application for entry into the six-nation European Common Market. Macmillan hoped to win De Gaulle's sympathy for Britain's hesitancy towards unconditional acceptance of the Common Market's proposed tough membership terms.

De Gaulle arrived yesterday.

The meeting was the first of a series of Western talks designed to frame a Western policy in Europe.

It was preceded by a conference in Washington earlier this week between President Kennedy and West German Chancellor Adenauer, which ended in basic agreement on a possible approach to Russia over Berlin.

Next Thursday, Adenauer is scheduled to meet De Gaulle. A cold which has limited Adenauer's recent activities made it appear, however, that he may be unable to keep the date.

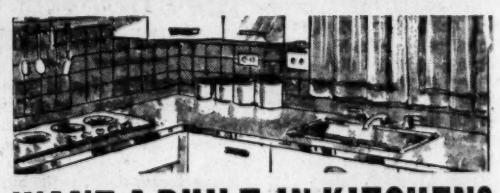

Foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany will meet Dec. 11 in Paris, probably for a final alignment of the allied plans on Berlin.

These outlines will be presented to the NATO council for study and approval at a meeting in Paris Dec. 13-15.

ONLY $1,153,000 STILL NEEDED IN FUND DRIVE FOR SPORTS STADIUM

Pledges Totaling $100,500 Received in Week From 14 Businesses and Banks, Two Labor Unions.

Pledges totaling $110,500 for equity financing of the downtown Sports Stadium project have been received in the last week, leaving only $1,153,000 of the $20,000,000 goal still to be obtained, it was announced today.

Frederic M. Peirce, chairman of the Citizens Campaign Committee for the Stadium, said the $110,500 was pledged by 14 businesses and banks and two labor unions. The committee hopes to complete the equity financing by mid-December, Peirce said.

Largest single new subscription for the 55,000-seat stadium and allied facilities was $25,000, pledged by Lewis-Howe Co., pharmaceutical manufacturers. Manufacturers Bank & Trust Co. pledged $12,500 and Local 187, Beer Bottlers Union, $11,000.

Other subscriptions were as follows:

$10,000 — Cupples-Hesse Co., Reynolds Metals Co. and Western Printing & Lithographing Co.

$5000—Cass Bank & Trust Co., Lambert-Hudnut Manufacturing Laboratories, Inc.; Local 396, Bridge & Structural Iron Workers Union; United Lumber Co., and Universal Printing Co.

$3000—Alvey Conveyor Manufacturing Co.

$1000—Remley Real Estate & Investment Co.; Thomas Market, Inc.; Tober-Saifer Shoe Manufacturing Co., and one anonymous corporation.

The money subscribed will go for purchase of capital stock and income debentures of Civic Center Redevelopment Corp., which plans to build the stadium in a 31-block area south of the downtown business district.

MISCONDUCT BY U.S. SAILORS IN GUINEA DENIED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (UPI) —The State Department has denied that misconduct by American sailors caused United States naval units to cut short a good will visit to Guinea.

Press officer Lincoln White said yesterday two LSDs left the port of Conakry after the government of the African country canceled a scheduled three-day program after the second day.

Published reports quoted the Guinea government as saying the visit was marred by a stabbing and conduct by United States sailors designed to ridicule local citizens.

White said the United States Embassy and the staff of R. Adm. Allan Reed, commanding the group, investigated three alleged incidents carefully "and found no evidence of their taking place."

REPORTS UNDERGROUND TEST BY FRANCE IN THE SAHARA

LONDON, Nov. 25 (AP)—The London Evening Standard's Paris correspondent reported that France carried out a secret underground nuclear explosion in the Sahara on Nov. 7.

It was a small caliber atomic bomb and the fact it was exploded underground made the test undetectable, the correspondent, Sam White, wrote. White said news of the test had been banned from the French press under threat of prosecution for a breach of national security.

White said Defense Minister Pierre Messmer attended the Sahara test. The last nuclear test announced by the French government was last April 25.

WALTER A. STRAUB ESTATE IS VALUED AT $318,528

The estate of Walter A. Straub, president of William A. Straub, Inc., operators of Straub's Stores and Shoppes, was valued at $318,528 in an inventory filed yesterday in probate court at Clayton.

Straub, who was 55 years old, died Sept. 18 after a long illness. He lived at 443 East Argonne drive, Kirkwood.

The inventory showed $310,391 in stocks, $5209 in personal property, $2628 in cash and $300 in goods. The entire estate was left to his wife.

STRANDED TROUPE GETTING READY TO LEAVE ST. LOUIS

An early return to New York, and perhaps to England, was planned today by a company of British actors overtaken by financial troubles here after the arrest of their manager, Eric Salmon.

Salmon was in jail awaiting extradition to Des Moines to face a charge of passing a worthless check. Police there said he was wanted for passing worthless checks amounting to more than $2000.

The 22 men and women in the troupe were to leave the Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel today and spend tonight in homes of St. Louisans. Their return to New York is being arranged through their union. They already have steamship tickets home.

The actors have been giving performances of "The School for Scandal" and two other plays, mostly for college audiences, in the United States since mid-September.

ALTON WOMAN INJURED IN HEAD-ON AUTO CRASH

Miss Elizabeth Mauger, 1609 Henry street, Alton, suffered serious chest injuries when her automobile crashed head on into another car on U.S. Highway 67 near the Missouri river yesterday.

St. Louis county police said Miss Mauger apparently lost control of her car on a curve and collided with an automobile driven by Kenneth Janes, 631 North Fifth street, St. Charles. Miss Mauger is in St. Joseph's Hospital, Alton. Janes was not injured.

Philip Niedert, 107 Victor street, was taken to City Hospital late yesterday after his automobile struck the rear of a truck and he was thrown through his windshield. He suffered a head injury and cuts of the face. The truck had stopped in Broadway at Pestalozzi street, police said. It was driven by Ben Delay, 3500 block of South Broadway.

JET CARRYING 5 TRUJILLOS DELAYED BY BOMB SCARE

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—A Lisbon-bound jet plane carrying five relatives of the late Dominican dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo Molina flew out of Idlewild Airport early today after a bomb scare had delayed it three hours.

Police ordered the Trujillos and 45 other passengers off the plane shortly before its departure time after an anonymous telephone caller said there was a bomb aboard. No bomb was found.

The dominicans were Brig. Gen. Luis Trujillo Reynosa, the late dictator's nephew, who said he would serve as military attache at the Dominican Embassy in Lisbon; another nephew, Francisco Trujillo Reynosa, who said he will act as secretary at the embassy; Gen. Reynosa's wife, Caridad, and two daughters, Theresa and Luisa.

$100,000,000 SURPLUS FOOD PROGRAM ADOPTED BY FAO

ROME, Nov. 25 (AP) — The biennial conference of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization formally approved yesterday a $100,000,000 surplus food program to feed the hungry and help the underdeveloped economies.

The conference closed with adoption of the FAO's full report by representatives of 104 nations and territories. Adoption meant acceptance of both the world food program and a recommendation that it be put to work as soon as possible, accepting contributions of food and cash from member nations.

Twice before a plan of its type had been considered and rejected. The United States had advanced the plan, pledging $40,000,000 worth of commodities. Canada then offered $5,000,000 worth of food and cash, Denmark $2,000,000 worth, and other nations unspecified amounts.

NEW MUNICIPALITY FOR COUNTY STUDIED

A fact-finding committee of the South Central County Council, a South St. Louis county homeowners' association, has begun a study of the possibility of forming a new municipality in a large unincorporated area in the southern part of the county, Allen Baer, president of the council, said today.

Baer said the six-man committee, formed earlier this month, held its first meeting last night. Specific tasks were assigned to committee members.

The committee, headed by Walter L. Siegerist, 12949 Windy Hill drive, will first attempt to determine whether there is a sufficient tax base to support incorporation, Baer said.

After that, the committee will gather information as to what municipal services would be needed and wanted in the area, he said.

The prospective tax base will chiefly determine the specific boundaries of any proposed municipality, but the committee will initiate its investigation in an area roughly bounded by Gravos avenue, Lindbergh boulevard, Lemay Ferry road and the Meramec river, Baer noted.

At present, the area is given police protection by St. Louis county police. It is in the Mehlville Fire Protection district, and straddles the Lindbergh and Mehlville school districts.

Baer emphasized that his organization is not proposing incorporation at this time, but said that it may do so later, depending on the outcome of the investigation.

"We have no way of judging public sentiment on the question right now, since no polls have been taken," Baer said.

Baer said his fact-finding committee is not attempting to compete with that of another organization, the South County Civic Council, which is studying an incorporation proposal for the Lemay area.

YOUTH, 18, GETS SIX YEARS AS HABITUAL CRIMINAL

Robert L. Roberson, 18 years old, was found guilty yesterday of assault with intent to rob by a jury in Circuit Judge Ivan Lee Holt's court and the Judge, under the habitual criminal act, fixed punishment at six years in the penitentiary.

Robert Jones, 7941A North Broadway, testified Roberson was one of three youths who attacked him June 26 when he was walking in the 8300 block of Church road. Jones said he was cut in three places by a broken beer bottle. He testified the attackers stole his wallet containing 90 cents.

Roberson, 400 block of Blase avenue, denied attacking Jones. The other two defendants, John R. Havener, 20, 8100 block of Church road and Thomas E. Gerhardt, 18, 900 block of Elias avenue, were sentenced yesterday to three years each in the penitentiary by Circuit Judge Robert L. Aronson on pleas of guilty to assault charges. They were placed on probation for two years.

JOHN OSBORNE REACHES U.S. IN AN ANGRY MOOD

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (UPI)—British playwright John Osborne, Britain's original "angry young man," came to town yesterday, in an angry mood.

"Don't bother me, I'm not prepared to answer any questions," he told reporters at Idlewild airport.

Osborne, 32 years old, was accompanied by Penelope Gilliatt, 29, the estranged wife of Dr. Roger Gilliatt, who was best man at the Princess Margaret-Antony Armstrong-Jones wedding.

Osborne also is separated from his wife, actress Mary Ure, who starred in "Look Back in Anger."

BIG STORE SALES HERE UP 13 PCT. FROM YEAR AGO

Department store sales in the St. Louis area increased 13 per cent last week in dollar volume compared with the similar week a year ago, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis reported today. Sales in the four-week period ended last Saturday were up 6 per cent in the St. Louis area.

In the Eighth Federal Reserve District as a whole, sales increased 8 per cent last week. For the four-week period ended last Saturday, sales in the district were up 5 per cent.

Cumulative sales in the St. Louis area and in the district as a whole from Jan. 1 are the same in dollar volume as sales in the comparable period a year ago.

Department store sales throughout the nation in the week ended last Saturday were 6 per cent higher than those of the corresponding period of 1960.

CONTRACT IS LET FOR NEW POST OFFICE IN KIRKWOOD

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25—A contract for construction of a new branch Post Office in Kirkwood has been awarded to the Fruco Realty Co., 1706 Olive street, St. Louis, Senator Stuart Symington (Dem.), and Senator Edward V. Long (Dem.), Missouri, announced today.

The company will build the Post Office at an estimated cost of $178,000 and lease it to the Post Office Department for 15 years at an annual rental of $19,999, with four options to renew the lease for five years each after the first 15 years.

The branch will be on the northeast corner of South Taylor and East Monroe avenues and is to be completed May 15. With surrounding land, it will occupy 50,529 square feet.

DRIVER DIES; TRUCK GOES OUT OF CONTROL, HITS AUTOS

Walter L. Barbiere, a truck driver living at 4022A Nebraska avenue, died yesterday, apparently of a heart attack, when driving north on Broadway at Delmar boulevard.

The truck went out of control a short distance south of the intersection and went over the sidewalk on the east side, then to the northwest corner and into a parking lot. It struck three unoccupied automobiles before stopping.

Barbiere was lying on the seat.

WOMAN IS FOUND HANGED

Mrs. Aline Abel, 76 years old, a widow, was found hanged yesterday in the basement of her home, 4217 Holly avenue.

The body, suspended from a water pipe by a plastic clothesline, was found by Mrs. Ellen McCoy, of the same address. She told police that Mrs. Abel had been ill and despondent.

TWO GROCERS ROBBED; LOSS PUT AT $5700

$5000 Stolen From Proprietor of One Store — Second Held Up by Two Youths.

Two market operators were robbed of a total of $5700 in holdups yesterday, police reported.

Mrs. Saul Glatstein was robbed of $5000 when returning from a bank to the Grand Supermarket, 2501 North Grand boulevard, which she and her husband operate. She told police she had reached the front of the store, at 5:25 p.m., when a man seized a paper bag containing five packages of $10 bills, and fled across a parking lot. Mrs. Glatstein shouted to store employes who followed the thief but lost sight of him after a chase.

David Schwartz, owner of the University Market, 2549 University street, reported he was robbed of $700 by two youths, one of whom was armed with a shotgun.

Carried Shotgun.

Schwartz said a youth had purchased a soft drink and left returned with a second youth carrying a shotgun. The pair forced Schwartz to give them the contents of the cash register, and fled.

Warren Shannon, 1808 North Taylor avenue, was knocked unconscious early today by three men who fled with his automobile, watch, ring and $65. Shannon said he was preparing to get in the car in the 4100 block of Fairfax avenue when a robber approached and jabbed him in the back with a revolver. He was attempting to resist, Shannon said, when two other men assaulted him. Shannon was treated at Homer G. Phillips Hospital for cuts and bruises.

Several hours later Thurman Chason reported that he was walking near his home, 5149 Delmar boulevard, when a man threatened him with a knife and forced him into an automobile occupied by two men and a woman. He was robbed of $32 and shoved into the street. His description of the car matched Shannon's automobile.

Robbed of $149.

James Ellis, a switchman, 1223 South Jefferson avenue, was knocked down and robbed of $149 by two men in the 2300 block of LaSalle street yesterday, he told police. Ellis said the men asked for cigarettes and then struck him.

Two men were beaten and robbed by group of youths on the Hodiament streetcar tracks last night. Andrew Camozzi, 6127 Gambleton place, was walking near his home when three youths knocked him down and fled with $23. Thirty minutes later Edwin Eggesieker was walking on the tracks near his home, 6132 Bartmer avenue, when four youths seized him, knocked him down and fled with $20.

John Morris, attendant at a filling station at 12599 U.S. Highway 67, St. Louis county, was held up by an armed man and robbed of $125, he reported to police. Morris said the robber fled in an automobile with a second man.

Airman Glenn Sheets reported to East St. Louis police early today that he was held up and robbed of $155 near Twenty-ninth street and Missouri avenue. Sheets, stationed at Scott Air Force Base, said a man threatened him with a knife and stole his wallet containing the money.

Robert Roose, 1202 Piggott avenue, East St. Louis, was held up in front of his home by two men who stole $40 and fled in an automobile. Roose said the robber threatened to use a knife, but he saw no weapon.

Secret Sonic Boom Tests Made High Over Unrevealed U.S. Cities

FAA Seeking to Determine If Sound Waves From 1500-Mile-an-Hour Jets Cause Ground Damage.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (UPI) —The Federal Aviation Agency, looking toward the day of supersonic jet transports, has been conducting a secret series of sonic boom tests high over an undisclosed number of American cities, it was learned today.

B-58 bombers and F-106 fighters, flying as high as 60,000 feet, have been used by the agency to determine whether sound waves from the 1500 mile-an-hour planes can disturb or even injure people and property on the ground.

The tidewater area around Norfolk, Va., was rocked early in November by a large number of unexplained explosions. Some persons in the area complained they had been knocked to the ground by the explosions, and at least one store window was broken. Officials in the Norfolk area denied any responsibility.

Though the sonic boom phase of the tests has been completed, the FAA still is experimenting to see whether the present air traffic control system can handle faster-than-sound aircraft.

The agency made no announcement about the tests because it was afraid advance publicity would result in a wave of complaints and protests.

Some aviation experts believe sonic booms will prevent supersonic airliners from being used at their top speeds on anything but overwater flights.

Scientists have estimated the sound waves generating less than two pounds of pressure per square inch are bearable and harmless. It was understood that the FAA's test flights did not reach that level. The experiments are part of the agency's supersonic transport development program.

POPE JOHN IS 80; LEAVES VATICAN TO VISIT STUDENTS

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 25 (AP) —Today was the eightieth birthday anniversary of Pope John XXIII. No big observance was planned for the event, which was celebrated here Nov. 4 jointly with the third anniversary of the Pope's coronation.

The Pontiff began the day by saying Mass in his private chapel. Then, for the 100th time since he became Pope, he left Vatican City, this time to visit the College of Propaganda Fide on Rome's Janiculum Hill. The building was decorated with papal banners and with the flags of 70 nations, representing the nationalities of the student priests studying there for missionary work.

Pope John celebrated Mass for them and dedicated a new fourth floor for the building. To students who expressed birthday greetings, Pope John said: "I say, you, too, endeavor to reach 80 years of age."

THE REV. L. C. BROWN HEADS INQUIRY IN PAN AM DISPUTE

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

HYANNISPORT, Mass., Nov. 25—The Rev. Leo C. Brown, professor of economics at St. Louis University, was named yesterday by President Kennedy as chairman of an emergency board to investigate a dispute between Pan American World Airways and employes represented by the Air Line Pilots Association.

Other members named were Eli Rock, Philadelphia, professional labor arbitrator, and Arthur M. Ross, director of the Institute of Industrial Relations at the University of California. Father Brown is a former member of the War Labor Board and the War Stabilization Board.

The President signed an executive order Nov. 10 declaring the dispute constituted an emergency. This delayed a strike for at least 60 days.

NAVY TO DECORATE JET PILOT WHO FLEW 1606 M.P.H.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP) — The Navy, claiming a world's jet speed record of 1606 miles an hour for its F-4H Phantom II fighter, will decorate its pilot today with the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Marine Lt. Col. Robert B. Robinson of Downey, Calif., flew the jet, built by McDonnell Aircrift Corp. of St. Louis, in the record flight Wednesday from Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

Robinson will receive the D.F.C. from Secretary of the Navy John B. Connally in a ceremony commissioning the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier, Enterprise, at Newport News, Va. In the flight, Robinson's Phantom reached a top speed of 1650 miles an hour, about 2½ times the speed of sound. Robinson's record was 81 miles an hour faster than the old record of 1525.96 miles set by Air Force Maj. Joseph W. Rogers in a F-106 interceptor on Feb. 15, 1959.

BROTHER, SISTER TO SHARE RUTH E. MUCKERMAN ESTATE

The will of Miss Ruth E. Muckerman, filed in Probate Court yesterday, left the bulk of her estate in equal shares to her brother, Raymond E. Muckerman, and a sister, Mrs. Marie Paula Bass.

Bequests included $10,000 to a friend, Walter C. Schiff, 4412 Blair avenue, and $3000 for Masses for her father, the late Edward L. Muckerman; her mother, the late Mrs. Paula Muckerman, and herself. Mrs. Bass and Tower Grove Bank & Trust Co. were named co-executors.

Miss Muckerman, a member of an old St. Louis family, died Tuesday at her home, 40 North Kingshighway. She was 49 years old. Her father was president of Sieloff Packing Co. and a former officer of Polar Wave Ice & Fuel Co.

60 PCT. REVENUE HIKE ON PHILLIPS HOSPITAL CARE

Result of Improved Billing System — $303,068 Collected in Seven Months.

As the result of an improved billing system for patients at Homer G. Phillips Hospital, a 60 per cent increase in collections has been registered in the first seven months of the current fiscal year, Assistant Hospital Commissioner James W. Meade reported yesterday.

Collections totaled $303,068, compared with $188,355, in the first seven months of the 1960-61 fiscal year, Meade said. The fiscal year began April 1.

At City Hospital, where the tightening of collection procedures started about one year earlier, a continued improvement was reported. Collections there so far this fiscal year have totaled $436,812, a $45,716 increase over a year ago.

Explaining the new billing system, Meade said patients on leaving the hospitals are presented with statements of all services rendered, a practice similar to that in private hospitals.

Ability of patients to pay is checked by social workers. Patients are interviewed before leaving the institutions and before their personal effects are turned over to them.

If a clear-cut case of indigence is shown, the charges are written off. If, however, the patient is able to pay, he is required to settle his bill or sign an agreement tot make weekly payments for periods up to three years, Meade said.

A significant result of the new practice has been a reduction in the number of patients at the hospitals, he added.

The increase in this year's collections at the two hospitals, totaling $160,429, represents a major part of the $180,674 increase in city revenues from all sources, Comptroller John H. Poelker said.

Total receipts for the first seven months amounted to $28,951,389, compared with $28,770,715 in the similar period a year ago, Poelker said.

COLLINSVILLE HUNTER SHOT

Charles Sweet, 16 years old, was struck by about 100 pellets when a shotgun in the hands of a hunting companion was discharged accidentally yesterday.

Sweet, 1406 Lester avenue, Collinsville, was hunting rabbits with a 16-year-old friend in a field east of Collinsville. Sweet is in serious condition at St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis.

Letters from the People

Behind 'No Hunting'

It is our firm belief that those who are shouting and beating the drums for no hunting in the Busch Wildlife Area should identify themselves, their interests and their motives, and to check carefully the statements they have so quickly and abundantly made.

We would like to remind these individuals that the Busch Wildlife Area was established for restoration and preservation of wildlife under the direct supervision of the Missouri Conservation Commission.

Further, we believe that the commission personnel are in No. 1 position to decide if there is a need for the area to be hunted to reduce the rabbit population.

One of our members who has hunted at the area reports that the commission has set up "check stations" where commission personnel clean the rabbits, obtaining parts of the rabbits for research, studying the food supply in relation to the fat found on the rabbits, checking for disease, etc. It appears, then, the commission is obtaining some very useful information.

We would like to voice our vote of approval for controlled hunting at the Busch Area to join the activities that are already in progress—fishing, archery, dog-training, field trials, conservation work, etc. Certainly we do not feel this area should be reserved for the activities of any specific group.

Glenn Sanders, Secretary, Conservation Federation of Mo., Inc., North Side Division, St. Louis Chapter

For Press Controls

It is comforting to know that the strong arm of federal control is being strengthened to protect our poorly informed citizenry. You note the FCC revocation of a TV station's license as a precedent-setting warning of a new regulatory mood. Have you considered the possibility that federal control might include a new agency—"The Publications Control Commission"? I am looking forward to reading your final editorial bemoaning the revocation of your license to publish because this agency has passed judgment on the value of your newspaper.

Atomic Hospital

Enclosed is a statement for which I am alone responsible; the satirical form of expression is deliberate in an attempt to underscore my two positive concerns:

1. There is little real hope for our resolving the world tensions in our day short of a radical break-through in dealing with political anarchy that everyone seems to prefer to a world government with authority and power.

2. An imaginative expression of redemptive concern for the world would speak much more loudly than a multi-megaton bomb.

It is suggested that:

1. Congress appropriate at once 10 billion dollars to be given to the World Health Organization as a first installment on the establishment and operation of an International Hospital for the victims of atomic radiation.

2. The United States designate Alaska as a gift to the United Nations for the location of this institution.

3. All nations, now making, testing and using atomic weapons, be asked to join in the support of this enterprise, the equivalent in each fiscal year of the amount expended for atomic weapons.

4. If conditions warrant and it seems feasible, plans be gotten underway to remove the location of the hospital from Alaska to the moon at the earliest convenience. Should one of the giant nations have already staked the moon by that time, Mars or Venus might prove a viable alternative.

5. It is our judgment that, due to the critical state of world affairs, work on this project be begun tomorrow morning. Allen O. Miller

Respect For Flag

While seated in my car in the Crestwood shopping parking area, I observed a man who looked like a building custodian approach the flag flying in the breeze atop the Vandervoort roof come to attention, salute the flag and then, after lowering to half mast in behalf of a great American of the State of Texas lying in state, step back a few paces and again come to attention, again salute the flag.

I would like to say that he is to be commended for his devotion and loyalty to our flag.

A World War II Veteran

Without Leadership

Has the greatest industrial nation in the world lost its will to develop nuclear energy as a source of electric power? One of the leading American businessmen in the field warns that progress in the fundamentals of the technology is flagging, many questions "of a very basic nature" remain unanswered, new construction is dormant, reactor manufacturers are going through "a distinct period of financial concern," and there is no clear national program to lead the way. "Neither the utility industry nor the manufacturing industry has been in a position to assume the principal burden of atomic power development."

These are the words of Dr. Chauncey Starr, vice president of North American Aviation, Inc., and president of its Atomics International Division. The dark picture of inaction and drift which they describe is a standing reproach to the nation which led and still leads the world in nuclear technology for destruction but has been and still is weak of purpose in developing that technology for peaceful energy.

How can this state of affairs have come about in a country which prides itself on the brilliance and vitality of its technological drive? In the early years of the Atomic Age many Americans felt with great earnestness that the United States was solemnly obligated to push forward with atomic energy, as an act of conscience countervailing the destructive potential of the split atom, and as a duty to all the countries that needed this promising new source of energy.

From the outset it was obvious that private leadership was destined to failure. Private business was not equipped to provide the large sums of money required. It was by nature unsuited to projects which would show no monetary profit. It could not fairly ask its customers alone to pay for the monetary losses. The profits that were promised, though great, were the dividends of Government: enhanced prestige, the good will of other countries, the rise of a vital new industry to invigorate the economy. Yet the course of private leadership was stubbornly followed.

For several years as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission Lewis L. Strauss prodded and cajoled private companies into nuclear energy projects. Even with heavy subsidies the progress was scant and slow. When John A. McCone took over as chairman he largely followed the policies of his predecessor. His successor, Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, now frankly admits that the one or two plants on the drawing boards which promise to produce economic power eventually in high cost areas such as California and New England "will certainly not represent an important contribution of nuclear energy to civilian uses."

But still the ideas of Strauss and the Eisenhower Administration, that the Government should stay out of atomic energy production even if it means stagnation, largely dominate the AEC and almost completely dominate Congress. Industry itself is suffering in consequence. Dr. Starr's indictment of national leaderlessness in atomic energy is not that of one who champions public power but of an industrialist who speaks for the purposefulness and action that have long been sources of our national strength. Can we not finally have an end to unproductive and irrelevant theorizings about who shall do what, in the over-riding interest of someone's doing something?

Gallatin's 'Rotary Jail'

A 73-year-old rotary jail at Gallatin is certainly an oddity, but then so are the efforts of some Daviess county citizens to preserve it as a tourist attraction. The structure in question is circular with eight pie-shaped cells, surrounded by a steel cage which can be rotated to bring a door up in front of one cell or another. The fascination of the contraption, if any, is such as might be felt for the rack, the screw, or Procrustes' bed. It is distressing enough that incarceration of the sort ever existed in Missouri, and virtually unbelievable that it has persisted into the twentieth century.

Conceivably this relic of the dark ages could cater to the morbid curiosity of some visitors, but it is at least doubtful that Gallatin would be putting its best foot forward by setting up to supply that trade. It would seem that Daviess countians would be doing better by their community if they tore down the monstrosity and built a projected new jail that will confine prisoners in a manner acceptable for human beings rather than for mice in a trap.

Spending by the A.M.A.

Lobbying expenses of the American Medical Association for the first six months of this year came to $146,894, or about $100,000 more than for the same period in 1960, according to reports from Washington. And while this covered a good many activities, it is safe to say that most of the money went to finance the A.M.A.'s fight on the Kennedy Administration's program of medical care for the aged under the Social Security system.

This was probably money well spent, in the A.M.A.'s view, because action on the Kennedy Administration's health bill was postponed until the next session of Congress. The Administration is determined to make an all-out effort for medical care legislation in 1962 and the A.M.A. is faced with a tough and expensive fight. There is no doubt about the popularity of the Kennedy program among older people and the A.M.A. will have to come up with something better than this year's newspaper advertising campaign, which argued against "socialized medicine," to persuade Congressmen in an election year.

The A.M.A. does not represent the thinking of all doctors and others in health service work. The American Nurses Association is on record in favor of a medical care program paid for through Social Security and the American Public Health Association, representing 33,500 public health workers, is the latest group to approve the Kennedy program. The A.P.H.A. council, which is dominated by doctors, indorsed at its convention in Detroit "appropriate proposals, including social insurance mechanisms, to provide for the sound financing of adequate health services to be available to the aged individual without a means test and on a paid up basis without additional fees or payments for covered services, in institutions, out-patient departments, and organized home care programs."

The A.P.H.A. looks on the adequacy of medical care as the sum total of a community's health resources. This involves, in addition to doctors, health departments, clinics, nurses, rehabilitation centers, medical social workers, and means of making these services available to all in a community who need them. We think the A.P.H.A. position is shared by the majority of Americans and should be heeded because it is a statement by a group of experts concerned with all aspects of medical care; the A.M.A. speaks only for the narrow self-interest of some doctors.

Test for King-Thompson

For 14 years the King-Thompson Act has served to protect the Missouri public against crippling utility strikes, but the constitutionality of the law has never been fully tested. Now it may be headed toward such a test, as a result of the law's use in the Kansas City transit strike.

This strike was different from others which have affected transit operations only because of the obstinacy of the two sides. The union sought a 38-cent hourly pay increase and 48 cents in fringe benefits from a company whose net income has declined by half under the impact of automobile competition. The company on its part offered only a half-cent hourly increase for three consecutive years, and refused to arbitrate, though arbitration had been part of every contract from 1947 on until the last contract expired.

State seizure under King-Thompson, with its threat of heavy penalties for continued striking, has temporarily halted the strike. United States District Judge William H. Becker refused to interfere with the seizure, but he did grant a union petition to convene a three-judge federal court to consider the constitutionality of the law. Judge Becker said there has been serious doubt about the law since the Supreme Court held a Wisconsin anti-utility strike law invalid in 1951. Yet, since that law also differs from Missouri's, no one can predict how the court might decide on King-Thompson, the Judge noted.

In 1960 the federal Supreme Court refused, by 6 to 3, to deal with King-Thompson because the case at issue involved a St. Louis gas strike that had ended four years earlier. The dissenters argued, however, that the law should have been held unconstitutional. The questions involved were whether the King-Thompson penalties were one-sided and unreasonable, whether the law affected interstate commerce and whether federal labor law had pre-empted the field.

Only the federal courts can decide these matters. Perhaps it will be just as well if Missouri can learn, once and for all, whether King-Thompson meets the constitutional test. If it does not, the state will have to attempt to devise new protection for the public against the chaos caused by interruptions of utility service.

The Rembrandt's Buyer

Prior to the sale of the Rembrandt portrait of Aristotle to the Metropolitan Museum of Art for a record-breaking $2,300,000, some American art collectors expressed the fear that the painting might be sold at auction to a buyer from abroad—specifically, the Soviet government. The point was made that the Russians might purchase the masterpiece for any price as a means of promoting the idea that they are deeply interested in culture.

Obviously it would be difficult for a private bidder to buck the resources of a government, so that several collectors raised the question of whether the United States should have a law restricting the sale of national art treasures for export. This is a question Congress might want to consider if there were indications foreign governments actually were contemplating moves of this kind. Meanwhile we may be glad that the Rembrandt not only will remain in the United States, but that it will be displayed where it can be seen by the greatest number of art lovers.

Review for Washington Ave.

St. Louis's plans for traffic movement on Washington avenue downtown seem to be headed for a series of administrative and perhaps even judicial reviews. Public Service Co. and certain downtown business people see threats to their positions in the proposals, particularly as they involve adjustments in bus service.

We think the public interest would best be served by the Traffic Appeals Board reviewing the plan. Ordinarily the Traffic Division's recommendations would be entitled to a good deal of weight. But in this case Public Service Co. has raised certain questions that ought to be explored in detail before the traffic plan is permitted to go into effect.

In particular we are impressed with the company's argument that rerouting transit lines invariably produces a decline in passenger volume. This probably will be necessary if the city is permitted to abolish center loading zones for rush hour express busses. It may be possible to abolish center loading and reroute only non-express lines, which are the ones that have been least competitive with the private automobile.

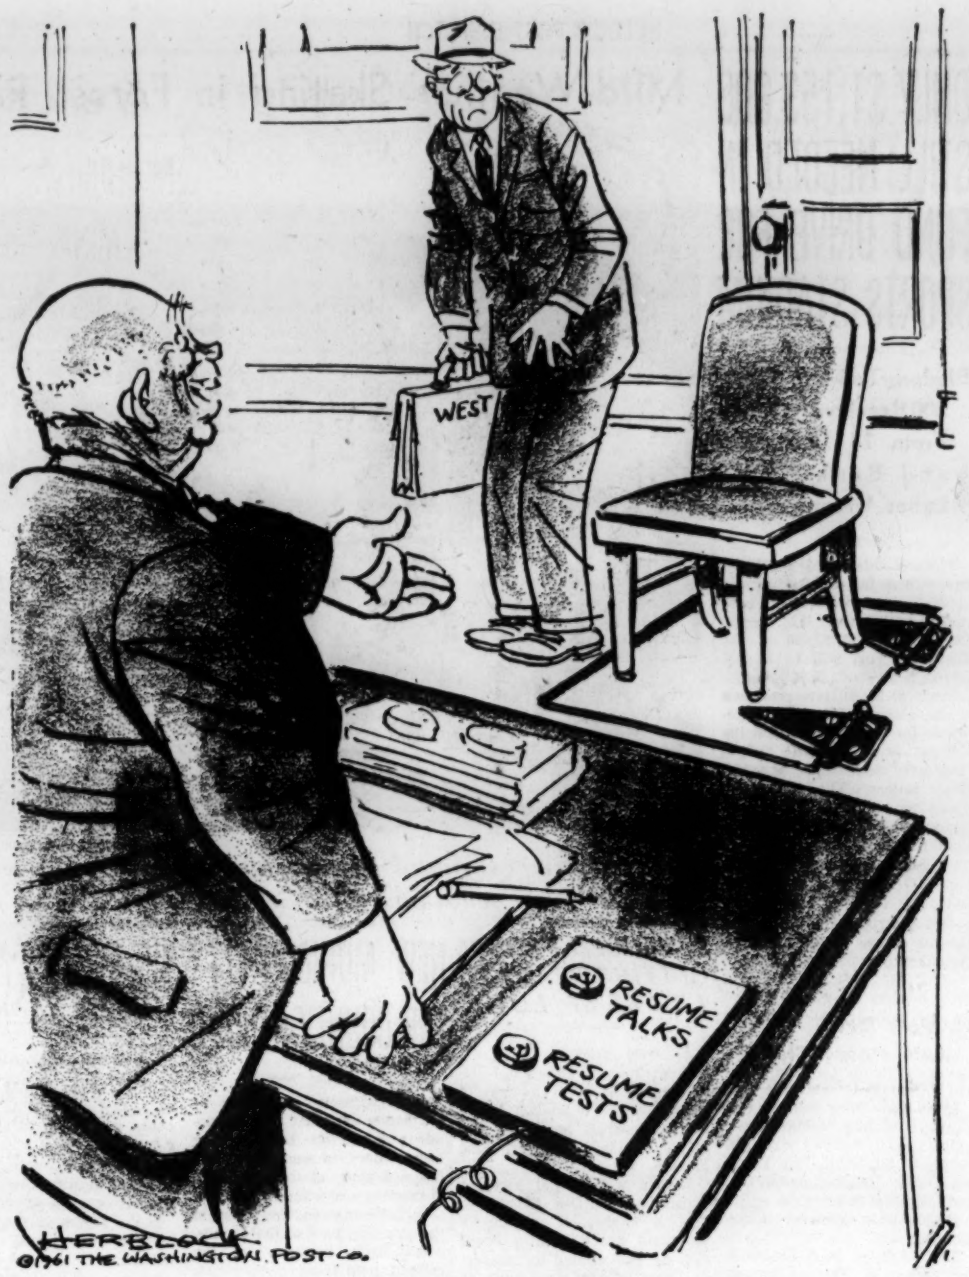

A traffic control plan that would tend to increase traffic by driving some transit passengers into use of their private automobiles is self-defeating; it may be that the city's plan would produce no such result. That question ought to be looked into very closely before changes are made that might hurt transit and increase automotive congestion as well.

Gen. Swing Retires

As chief of the Immigration Service, Lt. Gen. Joseph M. Swing (ret.) was an Eisenhower appointee whose term expired last summer. House committees twice had found fault with his conduct in office. Under those circumstances it is no surprise that he has resigned now.

House investigators charged that Gen. Swing had run his office as if it were a military command, used Government equipment for hunting trips in Mexico and Canada, and mismanaged his part of a civil defense test. Only two months ago it was revealed that his agency was responsible for the preposterous appointment of an ex-Batista officer to screen Cuban refugees in Miami.

Through seven years in office, however, Gen. Swing had the support of his friend and co-author of the Immigration Act, Congressman Walter of Pennsylvania. The General was accused of harsh administration of that law, but it is a harsh law. Whether it can be administered in a manner closer to America's ideal of a haven for the oppressed now depends upon Gen. Swing's successor and former assistant, Raymond F. Farrell.

"SIT DOWN, SIT DOWN."

Success in Feed Grains?

Administration Contends Program Aids Farmers, Consumers and Taxpayers

Statement by Charles S. Murphy, Under Secretary of Agriculture

In the last several weeks, the public has been exposed to a continuous stream of misinformation and misinterpretation regarding the farm policies and programs of this Administration. Much of the current misinformation appears to emanate from sources intent upon discrediting present policies in favor of their own devising, which have already failed.

In the main, it relates to the effectiveness and the cost of the emergency feed grain program adopted by Congress and initiated by the department in March 1961. This program was not created in a historical vacuum. It was created to deal with the serious emergency then confronting American agriculture as a consequence of the farm policies and the programs of the preceding eight years.

The Mirror of Public Opinion

Its success must therefore be measured by its effect in reversing the disastrous down-trend of farm income, steadily increasing production, and the continuous build-up of Government-owned surpluses of feed grains which were the principal results of the Benson agricultural policies.

In his testimony before the House Committee on Agriculture on Feb. 21, 1961, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman set forth the purposes of the feed grain program as follows:

"First, it will assure increased income for participating farmers in the important feed grain sector of our agricultural economy.

"Second, it will assure the consumer of fair and stable prices for meat, poultry and dairy products.

"Third, it will cost the taxpayer some $500,000,000 less than the present program.

"And fourth, it will reduce the Government's holdings of feed grains."

The program has met all of these objectives.

1. Increased income for participating farmers. Net farm income is up 9 per cent—partly because of the feed grain program. Farm income prospects for next year are equally good—also partly as a result of the feed grain program. Not only farmers, but rural communities, processors, and others who sell to farmers, benefit from improved farm incomes.

2. Fair and stable prices for consumers for meat, poultry and dairy products. Retail prices for meat, poultry and dairy products have remained fairly steady and have actually shown a modest decline during the period of the program.

3. Lower cost to taxpayer. Without the emergency feed grain program, the 1960 Benson program would automatically have applied to this year's bumper crop. Under that program the department was required to support the price of feed grains to all producers without any limitation on production. Government outlays under the emergency feed grain program will be about $500,000,000 less than the costs which the Government would have incurred had the 1960 Benson program continued.

4. Reduced Government grain stocks. Despite the record yields in 1961, the total carryover of feed grains will be reduced by about 200,000,000 bushels—the first reduction in surplus feed grain stocks since 1952. Continuation of the Benson program would have made total stocks of feed grains next year about three quarters of a billion bushels greater than now expected on Oct. 1, 1962.

How to Live Longer From The Milwaukee Journal

It used to be said that to assure yourself of long life the thing to do was to pick long-lived parents. This is not true, says a sociologist of Sweet Briar College, in Virginia, which is seeking the oldest people in the world and trying to find a scientific explanation for their longevity. Says Dr. Belle Beard: "We are convinced that the people who survive are not 'biological accidents,' as has been claimed, but people who in their daily living have made exceptional adjustments to life situations."

It is an intriguing study. Included is the assembling of a composite picture of what life is like after 100. This will indicate which human traits persist beyond the century mark and what types of personality change occur over the years.

In view of the way the life span has been increasing, the Sweet Briar study may prove important for a growing number of Americans. And not just to help them live longer but to make their later years more meaningful.

Between Book Ends The Brewing Upheaval

THE VOICE OF LATIN AMERICA, by William Benton. (Harper, 204 pgs., $3.95.)

A rekindling of the good-neighbor policy toward Latin America is called for by former United States Senator William Benton in this report on the significance of the 20 nations comprising Latin America. It is a highly digestible and informative look at those 20 nations and their problems today.

Mr. Benton went to Latin America to learn. Adlai E. Stevenson, who accompanied him, writes a foreword. "I like to think," Benton states, "we returned more learned than we left, thanks largely to the instructive and stimulating people we met. I like to believe we returned as better citizens of the Hemisphere. We are persuaded we did."

One feels that they both did. "The Voice of Latin America," first published as a supplement to the Encyclopedia Britannica and here expanded and somewhat differently oriented, is a clear indication that Mr. Benton and his better-known traveling companion came away understanding some of the great social forces at movement in Latin America.

Much of what Mr. Benton says has urgency today. Make no mistake about: the Latin American ferment means that only quick and decisive action by the United States will save the day for good hemispheric relations. For too long, as Benton notes, the United States and Americans in general have failed to realize the upheaval which is brewing among our southern neighbors—because we have been conditioned to think all is well south of the border. All is not well. Fidel Castro and Cuba should have shown that.

Former Colombian President Eduardo Santos, sitting in his handsome office in Bogota, where he is publisher of that city's clarion-voiced El Tiempo, told Benton:

"As things are now going, the greatest upheaval in history is brewing in Latin America. In five, 10 or 15 years, unless the United States acts, you'll see country after country explode. The Cuban upheaval will be mild in comparison."

Any perceptive traveler in these countries knows that Senor Santos is not whistling in the dark. The Latin American explosion may not be as forboding as Senor Santos suggests (or it may be even more so), but it is bound to come, nevertheless, unless the United States acts.

Benton concluded: "It is the part of wisdom in the formation of United States policy to assume that he (Senor Santos) may be right."

In his book, the former Connecticut Senator writes that the "problem is far more complex than mere money." It is not enough, he states, to grant bigger and bigger appropriations. The United States cannot "buy good will merely with dollars."

Hence, his premise that United States assistance should be aimed increasingly toward helping the Latin American nations plan for economic progress, and helping the people of the regions to help themselves. He argues that planning underlies the whole hope for averting the upheaval that Senor Santos forecasts.

"Without Government planning, there can be only limited opportunity for free or private enterprise," he writes, noting that much more stress should be placed in this direction. "Government planning is indispensable if Latin America is to achieve a climate which can best foster private enterprise," he adds. He suggests that this can be done by working through the U.N.

Other Benton suggestions: Remove the Pan American Union headquarters from Washington, where it is often felt by Latin Americans to be a captive of the United States, to, say, Panama. Internationalize the Panama Canal, possibly under Organization of American States control, he writes.

Thus, what Mr. Benton wants is a new deal in relations with Latin America. But he argues first that there must be awareness of the staggering problem of poverty. Corrective measures can only be taken by a citizenry aroused to the urgency of the situation.

BISHOP FLAVIN TO BE NEW VICAR GENERAL

Auxiliary Bishop Glennon P. Flavin will succeed Msgr. James P. Murray as vicar general of the St. Louis archdiocese, it was announced yesterday.

As vicar general, Bishop Flavin will be administrative assistant to Cardinal Joseph E. Ritter, who made the appointment. Msgr. Murray died last Saturday at the age of 77.

Bishop Flavin, former secretary to Cardinal Ritter, has been a leader in the World Missionaries movement, an organization of laymen dedicated to aiding missions. He was consecrated a bishop in May 1957.

He was born in St. Louis and is pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church in University City.

Msgr. Murray had served as vicar general since 1947.

Mrs. Dave Beck Dies.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 25 (UPI)—Mrs. Dorothy Beck, wife of former Teamster President Dave Beck, died yesterday of a heart attack. She was 67 years old.

RABBI MORRIS WOLFF FUNERAL TOMORROW

Funeral services for Rabbi Morris Wolff, who conducted services at various downtown meeting places for many years, will be held tomorrow at noon at the Berger Memorial Funeral Home, 4715 McPherson avenue. Burial will be in B'nai Amoona Cemetery.

Rabbi Wolff died yesterday in his room at the Claridge Hotel, where he had lived for 20 years. He was 71 years old. Friends said he had been under treatment for a heart disease.

Serving independently, without a synagogue, Rabbi Wolff held weekly services in hotel meeting rooms and other halls in the downtown area. On Jewish holidays, worshipers frequently filled a large hotel dining room several times for successive services.

He used posters, and in former years, newspaper notices, to announce his services and the meeting places. On these occasions, his large congregations, including many young men, came from the Washington avenue wholesale houses and downtown retail establishments.

Rabbi Wolff's short, stocky figure was familiar along Washington, where he took daily walks. He made calls at hospitals and other institutions.

There are no immediate survivors.

WERNER WOLFF, CONDUCTOR AND COMPOSER, IS DEAD

RUESCHLIKON, Switzerland, Nov. 25 (AP)—Werner Wolff, German-born conductor, composer and founder of the Chattanooga (Tenn.) Opera, died in a nearby clinic Thursday after an intestinal operation. He was 78 years old.

He started out to be a lawyer but turned to music. Before Hitler rose to power in Germany, he was conductor of the Hamburg State Opera. He fled in 1938 and settled in Chattanooga, where he founded the opera with the help of his wife, singer Emmy Land, who has since died. He was a naturalized United States citizen.

He retired to Rueschlikon in 1959, but continued working as music critic and writer. Among his literary efforts was a biography of Austrian composed Anton Bruckner.

DR. WILLIAM E. HOLDENREID FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD

Funeral services for Dr. William E. Holdenreid, a retired physician, were held today at Witt Brothers undertaking establishment, 6409 Gravois avenue, with entombment in Mount Hope Mausoleum. Dr. Holdenreid, 88 years old, died of infirmities Thursday at the Stone Nursing Home, 4373 West Pine boulevard.

Before he retired in 1951, Dr. Holdenreid had offices at 4504 Virginia avenue. He was a member of the St. Louis Medical Society, Missouri State Medical Association and the American Medical Association.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Laura Krause, a sister, Mrs. Pauline Braun, and a brother, Henry Holdenreid, all of St. Louis.

WENNER-GREN DIES; NOTED FINANCIER

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 25 (AP)—Axel Leonard Wenner-Gren, a Swedish farm boy whose supersalesmanship helped him amass one of the world's biggest fortunes, died yesterday of cancer. He was 80 years old.

The United States Government estimated his personal wealth at one billion dollars several years ago, but Mr. Wenner-Gren repeatedly declined to offer an estimate himself.

"All that is required to make a million dollars is hard work, self discipline and common sense," he once said.

Death came at the Red Cross Hospital here. An operation earlier disclosed that the industrialist and philanthropist was suffering from a stomach tumor that had spread to the liver. He had been under treatment for about a month.

His American-born wife, the former Marguerite Gauntier, was reported to be in the same hospital, under treatment for an undisclosed illness. They were married in 1914. They had no children.

It was believed that Mr. Wenner-Gren provided in his will for continuation of his vast scientific and health philanthropic activities managed through a Stockholm foundation.

Estimates of his donations in such work in Sweden, the United States and other countries range between $25,000,000 and $50,000,000. His associated foundations include the Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropolitical Research in New York City.

He was born on a farm near the Swedish west coast town of Uddevalla. He studied economics in Berlin after schooling in Sweden. He helped construct the first Swedish-made vacuum cleaner in 1912 and building an initial investment of $25,000 into a firm capitalized at $1,200,000 in 1928 through a smooth-working sales system. Associates—who called him the world's greatest salesman — recalled that in one day he got 100 orders for the appliances by calls made from a telephone booth.

Later he ranged into timber, silver and diet pills and got a contract for installing lights at the Panama Canal. He became a big-time dairy producer in Mexico at 70, then sold out those and telephone interests in that country to invest in the monorail overhead railroad project which has been tested in Texas and California.

His biggest venture was in 1956 when he planned an industrial empire in northeastern British Columbia which involved a huge hydroelectric project on the Peace river 450 miles north of Vancouver, and a 700-mile railroad from Prince George to the Yukon border. This plan at the time of his death was still a dream.

Mr. Wenner-Gren was said to have hated war and put his thoughts into a book called "Appeal To Everybody" just before World War II. He was blacklisted by the United States during the war for doing business with the Nazis.

Those close to him described him as modest and frugal in his habits and fond of persons in music and literary fields. In recent years he directed his operations primarily from an estate in the Bahamas but maintained homes in several countries.

GEN. JOSEPH N. DALTON DIES; SMASHED NAZI SPY RING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (UPI)—Maj. Gen. Joseph N. Dalton (Ret.), who played a major role in alerting Americans to the danger of Nazi Germany in the 1930s, died yesterday at Walter Reed Army Hospital. He died of cancer at the age of 69.

Gen. Dalton held administrative posts in Washington in World War II but was best known for the part he played in smashing a German spy ring in New York before the war began.

The case convinced much of the nation of the Nazi danger.

Search for Christian Unity Praised, but Caution Is Advised

NEW DELHI, Nov. 25 (AP)—A Roman Catholic, a Southern Baptist and the primate of the Church of England praised yesterday the world-wide quest for Christian unity. However, note of caution was sounded.

Beware of those who say that "we need just a few simple facts and principles in order to get unity," the Most Rev. Arthur M. Ramsey, Archbishop of Canterbury, told the World Council of Churches General Assembly.

"It is useless to think that we can look for unity in Christ's name unless we are looking no less for holiness in his obedience and for the realization of the truth which He has revealed."

Representatives of the widest variety of church bodies ever assembled in Christian history went through the sixth day of their three-week conclave.

In the first appraisal from five Vatican-named Roman Catholic observers, the Rev. Edward Duff, St. Louis Jesuit, said in an interview; "It is a providential thing—this vast confrontation. It is an astonishing thing. These people really want to stay together. It is not just rhetoric. The earnestness of their work and prayer is very inspiring."

As to whether the movement will ultimately heal the rifts in fragmented Christendom, he said; "That is the hope. How it will come out God has not told me."

Southern Baptist Evangelist the Rev. Billy Graham is preparing to leave tomorrow after sitting in on the sessions for a week.

He said; "It has been to me an illuminating experience. To see leaders from nearly every country of the world witnessing, debating and praying together is unforgettable.

Southern Baptists and the Roman Catholic church are the only larger church bodies that do not belong to the council.

Delegates are from 198 Protestant, Orthodox, and national Catholic denominations with more than 300,000,000 members.

METHODISTS RAISE SEMINARY FUNDS

By JOHN T. STEWART
Church Editor of the Post-Dispatch

Methodists of the Missouri East Conference have completed organization of a drive to raise $800,000 for the new St. Paul School of Theology Methodist, Kansas City, it was announced here today by Bishop Eugene M. Frank. The campaign will be started in January and is expected to be completed by Easter.

Co-chairmen for the drive are J. Clinton Hawkins of St. Louis, lay leader of the Missouri East Conference, and the Rev. Dr. Russell Lytle of Jefferson City. Mrs. J. D. Bragg of Kansas City, formerly of St. Louis, is honorary chairman for the St. Louis Area of the Methodist Church.

Bishop Frank made his announcement after returning from Kansas City, where he was principal speaker at a victory dinner for the Missouri West Conference, which has oversubscribed its goal of $998,411 by more than $25,000. The 10 districts of that conference raised $1,025,554, and a total of $117,500 of the pledges has been paid.

Bishop Frank told an audience of 300 pastors and laymen that the West Conference victory was "the greatest single achievement of Missouri Methodism."

"You have set the pattern," he said. "The other four conferences in the three-state area of Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska will surely follow your example."

Bishop Eugene Slater of the Kansas Area also spoke at the dinner. Bishop Frank was accompanied to Kansas City by his administrative assistant, the Rev. Dr. Herman H. Luetzow, St. Louis.

The Kansas Conference goal is $700,000.

The capital funds drive is the first phase of a program to raise $5,000,000 for the seminary. The funds will be used to purchase a campus adjacent to the University of Kansas City. The main academic building will cost $1,000,000; a dormitory, $200,000; and an apartment house for married students and their families, $1,200,000. Furniture and fixtures are estimated to cost $250,000, and $300,000 will be spent to bring the library up to 100,000 volumes.

The sum of $1,500,000 is to be set aside as an endowment fund.

The seminary is now on the campus of National College, Kansas City.

The school of theology was established in 1959, with five professors and 59 students. Now there are 142 students, 12 full-time and six part-time instructors. The Rev. Dr. Don W. Holter is president.

NOVENA TO BEGIN THURSDAY

The annual novena in honor of Our Mother of Perpetual Help will begin Thursday at Church of St. Gabriel the Archangel, 6323 Nottingham avenue, and end Dec. 8, Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Services will be held daily at 8 and 11 a.m., and 5:45 and 7:45 p.m.

The Rev. James Mittlestadt C. SS. R., a member of the Redemptorist Mission Band, will conduct the services and will hear confessions in German, Spanish and Italian. He has been stationed at St. Alphonsus (Rock) Church, St. Louis, since his ordination last year.

Delegate to Rotterdam.

The Rev. Dr. W. Wilder Towle, state minister of Congregational Christian Churches (United Church of Christ), has been named a delegate to the International Congregational Council to be held at Rotterdam, The Netherlands, next July.

WEBSTER GROVES CHURCH TO DEDICATE CAMPANILE

Webster Groves Christian Church, 1320 Lockwood avenue, Glendale, will dedicate its new campanile, cloister and bells tomorrow at 3 p.m. The Rev. Dr. Raymond McCallister, pastor, will conduct the service.

The bells for the campanile were cast in France and were a gift of the James F. Whitehead Jr. family, members of the church. The bells will be rung for the first time tomorrow.

Construction of the campanile was the third step in a master plan of development, which, when completed, will provide church buildings costing some $1,000,000. The sanctuary and educational building were completed about five years ago. A chapel will complete the long-term plan.

MARVIN PARK METHODISTS WILL LAY CORNERSTONE

Marvin Park Methodist Church, 9355 St. Charles Rock road, will lay the cornerstone for its new education building tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. The ceremonies will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Herman H. Luetzow, administrative assistant to Bishop Eugene M. Frank, and the Rev. Dr. Albea Godbold, superintendent of the St. Louis North District of the Methodist Church.

The building, which will cost $150,000, is expected to be completed by March 15.

The Rev. Fred J. Statler is pastor of the church.

TO HEAD NOVENA SERVICES

A novena in preparation for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, Dec. 8., will be held at Church of the Magdalen, South Kingshighway and Bancroft avenue, beginning Thursday. Services will be held daily at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. John Treinen C.SS.R., Redemptorist, will conduct the novena.

Minister From Paris Impressed By Affluence of U.S. Churches

The affluence of American churches almost never fails to amaze visitors from Europe. A current visitor to St. Louis, a Lutheran pastor from Paris, remarked, "In the United States, your churches have everything—people, clergy, money."

The Rev. Bernard Galicher said that in every city he has visited in this country he was impressed by the new, large, beautiful churches, church staffs instead of a lone pastor, large congregations, and the busy schedule of weekday parish events.

Pastor Galicher belongs to the small Protestant minority of Catholic France. There are only 700,000 Protestants out of a population of 43,000,000, he pointed out. There are only 500 Protestant clergymen in France, most of them Calvinists (Reformed), while there are 42,000 Catholic priests, he said.

There are only 40 students in the federated Protestant faculty of the Sorbonne (University of Paris). Recruiting pastors and priests is a serious problem for both Protestantism and the Catholic Church, Pastor Galicher said.

Many Duties.

He is pastor of Church of Our Saviour, a Lutheran Free Church, not far from Montparnasse railroad station. But this is only one of his many duties. His own congregation is small, but Pastor Galicher preaches to another, large and unseen audience; he is the speaker on the French version of the Lutheran Hour and office manager of its Parish branch. His sermon in French is broadcast over Radio Europe No. I, most powerful station in Europe, and is listened to by persons all over France and by French-speaking people in Switzerland, Belgium, The Netherlands, Italy and other countries in Europe. Recordings of his sermons are broadcast by stations in North Africa, in former French colonies, in Madagascar, the West Indies and Central America, and in Montreal and Quebec, Canada.

Pastor Galicher ministers also to many Americans in the Paris area—there are 8000 Americans living in Paris. He conducts a Protestant service in the chapel of SHAAF, and is pastor to many American servicemen and their families, calling on them in their homes and in hospitals. All his sermons to Americans are of course in English, which he speaks with a heavy French accent. He confirmed 11 American children in his Lutheran Free Church in 1960, and five last June.

Pastor Galicher is also president of the Paris District of his Free Church.

He spends a good deal of his time guiding American tourists around Paris, where he has lived for 15 years. These tourists have included many St. Louis Lutherans.

Missouri Synod Affiliate.

The Lutheran Free Church in France is affiliated with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Pastor Galicher is spending 10 days in St. Louis at a conference of headquarters personnel of the world-wide Lutheran Hour broadcast. Two other European branch managers are making their first trip to the United States. They are the Rev. Hans-Lutz Poetsch of Bremen, Germany, and Eric F. R. Smith of London. Paul Friedrich of St. Louis, executive director of the Lutheran Laymen's League, which sponsors the Lutheran Hour, missed the conference here; he was attending the World Conference for Christian Broadcasting in New Delhi, India, in advance of the World Council of Churches assembly.

The Lutheran Hour maintains 24 branch offices around the world. It broadcasts a gospel message in 40 languages, reaching an estimated 30,000,000 persons each week in 115 countries.

Pastor Galicher, interviewed at Lutheran Laymen's League headquarters, 2185 Hampton avenue, was asked if the French people were worried about the danger of war.

"No, the French are not worried about a war," he replied. "They are worried about the price of wine and tobacco.

PARENTS SET UNIFORM RULES

In Peoria, Ill., parents, tired of hearing their teen-age children defending way-out dating practices with the exasperating slogan —"All the other kids are doing it"—got together and produced a set of working principles.

Here are some of their policies on dating: High school freshmen are allowed to attend dances—but there are no dates; sophomores can engage in group dating only; for juniors, double dating is approved; seniors are allowed single dates "with prudence, variety, and reserve." Drinking? Parents must insist on total abstinence during high school years. Smoking? Parents should "curb or forbid" it.

7 CHOIRS JOINING IN HYMN FESTIVAL

The choirs of seven West End churches will present a hymn festival for the Advent season at Pilgrim Congregational Church, 826 Union boulevard, tomorrow at 4 p.m.

The program will be introduced at 3:45 p.m., when four trumpeters will stand on the steps of Pilgrim Church and play a call to worship at the festival. The trumpeters will play hymns of Advent and Christmas.

Churches taking part in the festival are Grace Methodist, Grace Presbyterian, Second Presbyterian, West Presbyterian, Westminster Presbyterian, Union Avenue Christian, and Pilgrim Congregational.

The festival program will include a hymn from the Ninth century of plain song origin; one from the Sixteenth century, with great allelulias, and one with words by Charles Wesley from the Eighteenth century. Traditional carols and other folk songs of the Advent season also will be sung.

Rudolph Scott of Parrish Temple will sing a spiritual, "Little Boy, How Old Are you?"

The service will close with singing of Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" by the choirs and congregation.

Mrs. Paul Friess, organist and choir director of Pilgrim Church, will direct the choirs, and Charles H. Heaton, organist and choir director of Second Presbyterian Church, will be the organist. Mrs. Leroy Lane, chairman of the music committee of Pilgrim Church, is in charge of arrangements.

Hawks Play Nats at Kiel Tonight, Hope to Snap 3-Game Slump

Detroit Triumphs, 142-135; 36 by Ohl

Hawks coach Fuzzy Levane, still without a victory in his new job, hopes to find a winning combination tonight when the St. Louis entry in the National Basketball Association meets Syracuse at Kiel Auditorium. Game time is 8:30 o'clock.

The Hawks dropped their third game in as many nights when they bowed to Detroit, 142 to 135, last night at Fort Wayne, Ind., former home of the Pistons. All three setbacks have come since Levane replaced Paul Seymour as coach.

Don Ohl of Edwardsville had a good night of 36 points, 22 in the first half when the Pistons built up a 74-63 edge, largely as a result of 43 points in the second quarter.

Hawks Outplayed.

The Hawks led at 4-2 and 8-7 in the first quarter, were tied at the end of the period, 31-31, and failed to take the lead at any time in the last three quarters.

Ohl hit two quick baskets to start the second period and Detroit was in front for keeps. The Pistons' largest margin was 100-83 with 3:04 left in the third period. St. Louis drew to within five at 136-131 with 1:33 left in the game, but two free throws and a fielder by Piston substitute Willie Jones clinched the decision.

Cliff Hagan, who paced the Hawks with 29, fouled out with 4:03 left to play. Teammate Bob Pettit chipped in 28 and Barney Cable, a newcomer, contributed 21. Pettit was held to one field goal in the first quarter.

Technical on Pettit.

Big Bob also had one of three technicals called during the game. Pettit got his for arguing with an official. Another technical was called on the Detroit bench and the third on St. Louisan Al Ferrari for delaying the game in the closing minutes.

By winning, Detroit improved its third-place standing in the Western Division to 7-8 as the Hawks fell to 6-12, just a game and a half ahead of the last place Chicago Packers.

During half-time ceremonies last night, former Fort Wayne star Larry Foust, now reserve center for the Hawks, received a plaque from area fans for his contribution to basketball. Foust drew four fouls in the nine minutes he played and scored just two points.

Archie Dees, former Indiana University ace who also came to the Hawks in the recent trade with Chicago, failed to score.

Anybody Want a Basketball?

Three Harris Teachers players close in on a loose ball during the second half of a game with Pan-American College in the semifinals of a tournament at Concordia Seminary. Harris athletes are BOBBY WILLIAMS (10), JOHN REED and PAUL BOEDEKER (34). No. 33 of Pan-American College is ELLIS APPLING. The visiting Texans won the contest, 74-69.

Visiting Teams Gain Concordia Basket Final

Pan-American of Edinburg, Texas, and Oklahoma Baptist colleges earned the right to play each other tonight for the championship of the Concordia-Harris basketball tournament by winning semifinal games from the St. Louis entries last night at the Preachers' field house.

Pan-American defeated Harris, 74-69, while Oklahoma Baptist beat Concordia, 63-51.

Harris jumped off to the lead and except for a 16-16 tie led the entire first half. Harris's biggest lead came within 18:36 minutes remaining in the game, a 38-30 margin. Pan-American broke on top for the first time, 47-46, with 11:12 remaining in the game. The scoring lead changed hands five times before the Texans finally went ahead to stay, 55-54.

Ellis Appling led Pan-American with 23 points, while John Reed sank 24 for Harris.

Concordia of St. Louis scored the first basket and led briefly at 19-18. The Bisons' starting lineup used three 6-5 players with their 6-7 center. The tall men controlled the boards and choked off Preacher rallies. The Bisons held their biggest lead, 62-44, with 2:33 minutes left.

In the consolation bracket, Concordia of Springfield, Ill., beat the 1960 winner, Quincy (Ill.) College, 61-60, for the right to play Central Methodist College of Fayette, Mo., tonight at 6 p.m. Concordia of St. Louis and Harris will play for third place at 7:30.

Fans Boo as Bowdry Wins Over Mack

ROME, Nov. 25 (UPI) — Light heavyweight Jesse Bowdry of St. Louis outpointed Freddie Mack, an American living in Rome, last night in a 10-round bout that was booed lustily by the crowd of 15,000 in Rome's Sports Palace.

The crowd was so dissatisfied with the slow pace of the two Americans that it littered the ring with bottles, sandwiches and other items. The ring was so cluttered in the seventh round that the bout was halted while the referee had it cleared.

Bowdry weighed 177¾ pounds and Mack 173½.

Minnesota Receptive To Rose Bowl Bid

By Ed Wilks
Of the Post-Dispatch Staff

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 25—The University of Minnesota, in a quick switch of policy, today indicated it would be receptive to a Rose Bowl bid should the Golden Gophers win the Big Ten football title.

The Gophers could assure themselves no less than a tie for the conference crown by defeating Wisconsin here today.

A university official, who declined use of his name, said that feeling concerning another bowl trip by the Gophers had changed over the past week. Just seven days ago, the same official had said the university, while voting in favor of a renewal of the Big Ten Rose Bowl pact, probably would disapprove a second successive post-season engagement by the Gophers.

Minnesota, then the National champion, lost to Washington in the last Rose Bowl game, at Pasadena, Calif.

"The governing committee found that when word of its plan to recommend against a successive bowl trip was made known on the campus, faculty members voiced approval of acceptance of a bowl bid, if one is forthcoming," the official said.

The official added that he assumed Ohio State, which has a chance to tie Minnesota for the conference title, also would be receptive to a Rose Bowl bid.

"Ohio State faculty representatives," he said, "have indicated generally acceptive sentiments concerning the possibility of a bowl invitation."

The Buckeyes, whose ruling faculty group previously were believed to be against a post-season game, have a chance to tie Minnesota for the Big Ten title should they win today's game at Michigan. An Ohio State victory coupled with a Minnesota defeat would give the Bucks the title outright.

The Gophers, meanwhile, could gain their first undisputed Big Ten title since 1941 by beating Wisconsin while Michigan upset Ohio State.

Hey! Duck Hunters!

Nearly all the snow cover south of the Canadian border has disappeared, the result of above-freezing readings as far north as extreme northern North Dakota and Minnesota. Snow depths north of the border were mostly less than 2 inches; temperatures in that region were in the teens and 20s during the afternoon.

Temperatures are expected to remain above normal over the middle and upper Mississippi valley over the weekend, but colder air will move southward into Montana and the Dakotas.

Some snow is expected across the Canadian prairie provinces and over Montana and portions of North Dakota.

Lakers Beat Knicks, Are Now 15-3

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (UPI)—New York City has many attractions but none is more pleasant to National Basketball Association teams than visiting Madison Square Garden to play the New York Knickerbockers.

The Los Angeles Lakers made the most of their first opportunity to pick on the weak clubs of the eastern division last night with a 100-89 victory, their fifteenth in 18 games. It was the lowest-scoring game in the league so far this year.

Elgin Baylor totaled 34 points and Jerry West 23 to lead the Lakers, who overcame an early New York lead with a 10-1 spurt. The Lakers coasted thereafter and led by 70-53 with five minutes remaining in the third period. Richie Guerin had 29 points for New York.

Oscar Robertson, celebrating his twenty-fifth birthday, scored 31 points as the Cincinnati Royals beat the Syracuse Nationals, 127-125, and remained 5½ games behind western division leader Los Angeles. Wayne Embry had 32 points and 16 rebounds and Jack Twyman had 24 points for the Royals while Dolph Schayes scored 32 for the Nats.

Crow and Hammack May Start

Mal Hammack at fullback and John David Crow at halfback—that sounds like good old times for the football Cardinals, and they hope the combination will mean something tomorrow at Pittsburgh when they meet the Steelers at Forbes Field.

Cardinal coach Pop Ivy named Hammack as running mate for Crow in the probable lineup for the game in which both will be returning to starting action after being limited by earlier injuries.

Prentice Gautt and Frank Mestnik, who had been carrying the load at halfback and fullback spots, will be ready for reserve duty as the Cardinals play their fellow eastern division club for the first time this season.

Both Pittsburgh and St. Louis have 4-6 season records and are tied for fifth spot in the East.

Bobby Layne, veteran quarterback of the Steelers, is expected to make his first start since early season. He had been injured but returned to action last week. For the Cardinals the passer and signal-caller will be Sam Etcheverry.

New Star, Brown, And St. Louis Aces Win in U.S. Tennis

By Bob Posen

Jeff Brown, a new star on the tennis horizon, is a Californian with an athletic background.

Fifteen-year-old Jeff, the top-seeded player in the boys' division of the National Indoor Junior and Boys tournament at the St. Louis Armory, said:

"My dad (Louis H. Brown) played quarterback under Dana Bible at Nebraska University, and my mother played basketball and even did some boxing. She played some tennis, but not much."

Young Brown also has an athletic brother, figure skater Tim Brown, who placed fifth in the Squaw Valley Olympics, then missed the plane which crashed, killing many of the United States skating team. Tim had been told by his doctor not to make the flight because the youth had had rheumatic fever.

Play Runs True to Form.

Jeff is one of the eight seeded players who advanced yesterday without upset into today's semifinals of the Junior and Boys' divisions. The 1-2 seeded juniors (18 and under), St. Louisans Cliff Buchholz and Arthur Ashe, moved ahead in straight quarterfinal sets, but 3-4 Jim Parker and Butch Newman had more trouble. St. Louisan Parker outlasted John Frazer, a Canadian attending Michigan University, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4. Newman, from San Antonio, Tex., overcame Jim Beste of Baton Rouge, La., 5-7, 8-6, 6-3.

The four seeded boys (15 and under) won quarterfinals in straight sets. They are Brown (No. 1), Carmichael, Calif.; Stephen Stockton (2), Riverdale, N.Y.; Cliff Richey (3), Dallas; and George Seewagen (4), Bayside, N.Y. Finals are scheduled tomorrow in both divisions.

Brown, losing just five games in six sets on his way to the semifinals, showed the form that enabled him to win championships the past year in the National Hardcourt singles and doubles, California state singles and doubles, International Jaycee singles and doubles and National outdoor doubles. In the National singles, at Kalamazoo, Mich., he lost a semifinal match to the eventual winner, Bill Harris, of Orlando, Fla.

Basketball Player, Too.

Brown, a poised and confident youngster, figures that he will be listed No. 2, behind Harris, in the new national rankings of boys 15 and under. He also believes that El Camino High School in Sacramento, which he attends, will go undefeated in its basketball league this season.

Jeff said he thought he could play as the No. 7 man on the varsity basket team this year but he would rather play on the sophomore team as a starter. He averaged 13 points a game from his guard position on the soph team last season.

To concentrate on tennis and basketball, Brown has given up track, swimming, baseball and football, he said. Swimming had been a major interest, and indirectly led to his start in tennis three and one-half years ago. He was training to swim in the junior Olympics when his swimming coach told team members to take a week's vacation from the water. During that week Jeff's mother suggested tennis as a diversion, and he's been at it since.

Miami Boosts Bowl Hopes With 10-6 Triumph

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 25 (UPI)—The Miami (Fla.) Hurricanes have passed their Liberty Bowl "test" with flying colors.

Led by George Mira, their sophomore passing sensation, the Hurricanes impressed a crowd of 46,282, including a pair of Liberty Bowl scouts, by defeating Northwestern, 10-6, last night for their sixth straight victory.

Mira passed for Miami's first period touchdown and then set up Bobby Wilson's 22-yard insurance field goal in the third period.

Ray Dooney, one of the Liberty Bowl scouts who watched the Hurricanes' performance, said, "They have a real colorful team and that Mira throws a football like he's picking a man off second base."

He added, however, that the Liberty Bowl officials will not announce any decision before tomorrow in Philadelphia.

Score By Quarters

Devine Says M.U. Could Upset K.U.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 25 (AP)—Dan Devine, Missouri football coach, told about 300 alumni at a rally last night, "I don't want you to break any rules, but I must tell you we need some football players."

He mentioned some Kansas players his Tigers will face today.

"Give me a halfback like Curtis McClinton and a quarterback like John Hadl and I'll give you a pep talk like you never heard before," Devine said. "Give me men like that and I'll win every game for you."

"Are we going to beat Kansas?" yelled a man in the crowd.

"I feel we're going to win and the squad feels we are going to win," Devine replied.

The Missouri-Kansas game will be broadcast by KMOX, KADY and KADL-FM, starting at 1:25 p.m.

Bills Seek 3rd Title In Soccer

By Harold Flachsbart

Two 12-game winning streaks will be on the line today when St. Louis University's classy soccer team shoots for a third straight National Collegiate Athletic Association title in the 1961 final with West Chester (Pa.) State. Game time at the Public Schools Stadium is 1 o'clock.

West Chester is unbeaten and untied in 12 games. The Bills, after an early-season loss at Akron, O., have bounced back to win 12 in a row and have an over-all record of 13-1.

No team this season has scored more than two goals against West Chester's tight defense, but the Billikens, a swift-running team which moves as a unit with short, accurate passes, has been held below two goals only twice in 14 games. And the Bills also have a fine defensive mark of six shutouts and only 13 goals scored against them.

To reach the title round in the national tournament, which drew a field of 200 schools, the Bills rolled past Rutgers, 6-1, and West Chester downed Bridgeport (Conn.) University, 2-0, in Thursday's muddy semifinals at Fairground Park.

Bob Trigg is the trigger man of St. Louis's sharp forward line that also includes Gerry Balassi, the squad's leading scorer with 17 goals; Bob Malone, Tom Klein and Tony Tieber. Klein scored three goals in the victory over Rutgers.

Sophomore Dave Robben has done a tremendous job in goal and has had excellent defensive help from fullbacks Joe Hennessey and Pat Griffard and halfbacks John Michalski, Ed Oswald and Bill Veith. The team is coached by Bob Guelker, executive secretary of the Catholic Youth Council, which has some 6000 soccer players kicking in the St. Louis area.

West Chester's leading scorer is William Fulk, with 13 goals, but the team coached by Mel Lorback is more noted for its stout defensive play. The Pennsylvanians have yielded only eight goals in 12 games, four of which were shutouts. Only Maryland made two against West Chester, last Monday in the N.C.A.A. quarterfinals, a game won by the Rams, 4-2.

Only opponent both the Bills and West Chester faced this season was the University of Pittsburgh. The Bills won over Pitt, 4-1, and West Chester won, 3-1.

In a preliminary to the college play, Our Lady of Sorrows and Epiphany will meet in a C.Y.C. Crusader contest, starting at noon.

N.A.I.A. Final Today.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Nov. 25 (AP)—Howard University and Newark (N.J.) College of Engineering won preliminary round games yesterday in the national small college soccer championship.

Howard, of Washington, D.C., rallied for two final period goals to defeat East Stroudsburg (Pa.) State College, 4-3. Newark topped Tabor College, Hillsboro, Kan., 3-0.

The two winners will meet this afternoon for the N.A.I.A. title.

Bluth Holds World Pin Lead

Carter's 1011 Sets A Record

By a Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch

CHICAGO, Nov. 25—The "Machine" started to move yesterday and leader Ray Bluth of St. Louis can be excused for looking over his shoulder in the finals of the $48,000 fifth annual World's invitational bowling tournament here.

The Machine is Don Carter, also of St. Louis, who has won the World's title three times in the last four years.

While Bluth has been winning matches and moving ahead of the field, he has been worried and wondering when the placid Carter was going to make his move.

Another Mark for Carter.

Don decided the time was ripe last night in the tenth round and proceeded to break one of the records which he did not already hold.

Carter rolled games of 236, 279, 257 and 239 for 1011, the first 1000 four-game series in the history of the World's meet and 18 pins better than the previous record of 993 by Harry Smith of St. Louis in 1959. This total, rolled against Don Ellis of Houston, gave Carter four games and third place among the 16 men finalists.

While Bluth continued to stroke the ball well and had a definite advantage over the field with five matches to go, Carter was moving again.

Bluth, totaling 205-34 Petersen points for the first 10 matches or 40 games, was still closely pursued by George Howard, a 112-pounder from Detroit, who was in second place with 201-18. Carter, third, had 199-12.

Hoover Rolls 300 Game.

Almost lost in the shuffle of St. Louis bowlers was Dick Hoover, the former Akron strong boy from the Falstaffs, who blasted the tournament's fourth 300 game before a standing-room-only crowd of more than 2500 in his match against Ralph Engan of Yonkers, N.Y. Hoover rolled 975 in winning all four games, a total which stood until Carter began blasting the pins in his final appearance of the night.

Hoover was in fourth place with a total of 195-48 points.

Dick Weber, the Bowler of the Year, was sixth with 180-25 points.

Mrs. Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., still held a commanding lead in the women's competition, but Laverne Carter of St. Louis, Don's wife, was very much in contention in fourth place.

EIGHTH ROUND

Ray Bluth, St. Louis, defeated Don Ellis, Houston, 20.14 points to 16.43. Bluth—237, 169, 237, 224—867. Ellis—209, 230, 173, 181—793.

RUTH CHATTERTON, NOTED ACTRESS, DIES

NORWALK, Conn., Nov. 25 (AP)—Ruth Chatterton, who took a dare at the age of 14 and went on to gain renown on the stage and screen and as a novelist, died in a hospital yesterday. She was 67 years old.

Miss Chatterton was taken to a hospital last Tuesday after being stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage as she entertained friends in the large old farmhouse at nearby Redding, Conn., that had been her home for several years.

She had lived alone since the death last year of her third husband, Barry Thomson.

Miss Chatterton's stage debut was in Washington shortly after she attended a matinee with a group of schoolmates.

When she criticized the star's performance, one of her friends challenged her to do a better job. A few days later, Miss Chatterton appeared in the show's chorus.

She was born in New York on Dec. 24, 1893, the daughter of William and Lillian Chatterton. As a youngster, she memorized Shakespearean speeches.

Miss Chatterton made her New York stage debut in 1911 when she appeared as Isolde Brand in "The Great Name." Later performances were in "The Rainbow," "Daddy Long - legs," "Come Out of the Kitchen," "A Marriage of Convenience," "Moonlight and Honeysuckle" "Second Best Bed," among numerous others.

Her last Broadway appearance was in "Idiot's Delight" in 1951.

She began her film career in 1928 in "Sins of the Father" and later appeared in such movies as "The Doctor's Secret," "Madame X," "The Laughing Lady," "Sarah and Son" and "Dodsworth."

Her first book, "Homeward Borne," was published in 1950 and dealt with anti-Semitism. It became a best seller.

Her first marriage was to Ralph Forbes, a British actor whom she divorced in 1932. The same year she married film actor George Brent. She divorced him two years later.

Doctors Fired

school's new policy was read at the Monday night meeting by Dr. Charles R. Doyle, associate professor of clinical surgery. It declared:

"We believe the requirement which makes mandatory the admittance of patients to Firmin Desloge Hospital by the clinical faculty to be arbitrary, unrealistic and coercive, and further, that the effect of such a policy can be divisive, setting the full-time and part-time faculty in serious disagreement.

'Dangerous Precedent.'

"It is our opinion that such arbitrary action by the administration establishes a dangerous precedent and we maintain that the status of a faculty member should not be changed without participation by his departmental director, and above all not without his knowledge.

"Ordinary courtesy requires that a physician be afforded an opportunity to resign from the faculty rather than be subjected to punitive dismissal."

The statement urged faculty members and alumni to make their position on the matter known to the president of the university. Continuing, it declared:

"We propose to recommend to him that the action of the dean in dismissing faculty members be rescinded, at least until such time as each individual's faculty status can be reviewed by the administration in consultation with the departmental director; that all faculty members in jeopardy of dismissal should be so informed by the departmental director, giving the reasons and offering the opportunity to resign; that the admission of patients to Firmin Desloge Hospital as a requirement for faculty status be removed; and that the status of St. Mary's Hospital with regard to university affiliation be clarified."

Congo

cited two units of about 200 men known by the government to have been responsible for the summary shooting of the U. N. airmen, and their subsequent dismemberment.

Though agreeing with the U.N. on the necessity of punishing the mutinous troops, Adoula announced he could not go along with plans to disarm the entire Kindu region. He insisted the Congolese government was capable of finding the guilty and bringing them to justice.

Request Renewed.

After consultations with Acting Secretary General U Thant in New York, the U. N. accepted Adoula's position. But it renewed its request for a joint Congolese-U.N. investigating commission, a commission Adoula had said was unnecessary. The world body already has appointed five members to this commission. The Congolese government has not appointed any.

U.N. troops had gathered at Kindu airport ready for an announced punitive action. But beset by command difficulties and the problem of sealing off a wide area of thick bushland, the action never was started.

Linner asked Adoula to submit to him the government report which named the army units said to have committed the killings. Adoula has told Parliament that the report cleared Lumumbist leader Antoine Gizenga, who earlier was suspected of having been in the Kindu area before the troops mutinied.

Tshombe Warning.

At Elisabethville, President Moise Tshombe of Katanga warned the U.N. and the central government he would "meet force with force."

This was his reply to the U.N. Security Council resolution adopted yesterday saying that Katanga's secession must be ended by force if necessary.

The President called a press conference and said: "We are prepared for any negotiation and solution of the problem by peaceful means. However, if we are attacked we will reply with force.

"Even if the whole Katanga population — black and white — has to die and our economy to be destroyed we will resist.

"If the United Nations forces a repetition of the events of Sept. 19, it will be the United Nations's fault and the new secretary general, U Thant, will bear more responsibility for what happens than did the late Mr. (Dag) Hammarskjold."

This was a reference to an attempt by U.N. forces in September to forcibly expel white mercenaries from Katanga's army. This effort ran into unexpectedly fierce resistance and fighting ended with a cease-fire that favored Katanga.

TWO BROTHERS KILLED AS AUTO, TRAIN COLLIDE

HANNIBAL, Mo., Oct. 25 (AP) —A Wabash freight train and an automobile collided at a grade crossing two miles west of Hannibal late yesterday, killing two brothers in th car. They were Lester Dee Bowler, 23 years old, and Coleman Eugene Bowler, 20. Their home is on a rural route near Hannibal.

The highway patrol reported the 115-car freight continued half a mile after the collision and the wreckage of the car hung on the front of the diesel locomtive until about 300 feet before it stopped.

Lester Bowler worked at a factory in Hannibal. His brother was a farm laborer.

FREEDOM RIDERS' PLEA GOING TO SUPREME COURT

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 25 (UPI)—Notice of appeal to the United States Supreme Court was filed yesterday in a lawsuit challenging the arrest of Freedom Riders attempting to desegregate travel terminals in Mississippi.

A panel of three federal judges refused to consider the suit last week, saying it first should be filed in state courts. The suit was brought by three Jackson Negroes and was financed by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

SPY IN BRITAIN A RUSSIAN WHO ONCE LIVED IN U.S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (UPI) —The Federal Bureau of Investigation said yesterday that Gordon Arnold Lonsdale, convicted member of an espionage ring operating in Britain, actually is a Russian who lived briefly in Berkeley, Calif.

The FBI said it had investigated Lonsdale intensively since March when he was found guilty of stealing British naval secrets. At the time he was listed as a Canadian. An American couple and two British nationals were convicted with him.

The FBI said Lonsdale is a 38-year-old Moscow-born Russian named Conon Molody. He first came to the United States in 1933 as the 11-year-old son of a woman who really was his aunt, the FBI said. He returned to Russia in 1938, went to Canada in 1954 and was in the United States again in 1955.

Molody is serving a 25-year sentence in a British prison. The two Americans in the case were Morris and Lona Cohen of New York.

ROBERT KENNEDY, WIFE GOING TO BERLIN, MAYBE TO BONN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (UPI) — Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy and his wife will visit Berlin in February in a demonstration of United States concern for the Red-encircled city, an aid announced yesterday.

The President's brother may also visit the West German capital of Bonn, diplomatic sources said, but no decision has been made. President Kennedy discussed his brother's Berlin trip last week in talks with West German Chancellor Adenauer.

The Attorney General will deliver the Ernst Reuter memorial lecture at the University of Berlin on Feb. 24, the Justice Department said.

Finland

discussed co-operation in mutual defense measures. Some Finns fear that such co-operation could mean the return of Soviet troops to their neutral nation, which borders on Russia. But Khrushchev did not bring up this possibility, according to the Tass report of the meeting, although he did mention the Soviet withdrawal from its naval base in Porkkala, Finland, several years ago.

Diplomatic observers here said Khrushchev may be under pressure from Soviet military leaders to seek military concessions from Finland, possibly radar bases on Finnish soil.

But the main purpose of the talks, they said, was political. Khrushchev's two chief aims were to guarantee Kekkonen's re-election, thus assuring Russia of six more years of Finnish neutrality, and to pressure Norway and Denmark to weaken their military ties with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

More Fair and Mild Weather

—Associated Press Wirephoto. Low temperatures and areas of precipitation expected tonight.

Fair and mild weather is expected to continue in the St. Louis area tomorrow and Monday, the Weather Bureau said today.

Southerly winds continued to bring warmer air into the middle Mississippi valley today and temperatures were expected to reach the 70s in southwest Missouri. The warming trend yesterday brought the first above-normal readings in the Missouri-Illinois area in 10 days.

Mild, pleasant weather covered most of the country, with partly cloudy to clear skies prevailing in the southern Rockies, the Plains, Great Lakes region, western Ohio valley and in the southeast quarter of the nation.

Warmer temperatures were reported in the southern and central plains as well as the Mississippi valley.

A heavy, wet snow fell last night in the Pacific Northwest. The snow, up to a depth of 16 inches at Remote, Ore., followed heavy rain which spread southward into California and eastward over the northern Rockies.

Another storm moved toward the Atlantic ocean in the northeast, bringing rain and some snow flurries to New York and parts of Vermont and Maine. Skies were cloudy over most of New England with temperatures in the 30s and 40s.

Heating degree days in the St. Louis area yesterday, 22; the month, 479; the season, 742.

BIDS & PROPOSALS WTD. 286

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS
Sealed bids for the construction of Addition to the Frank P. Tillman Elementary School, 230 Quan Avenue, Kirkwood, St. Louis County, Missouri, for Kirkwood School District R-7, will be received at the office of the Board, 516 S. Kirkwood Road, Kirkwood, Missouri, until three p.m., Wednesday, December 6, 1961, and then publicly opened and read aloud.

Plans and specifications are available in the office of the Architects, Jamieson, Spearl, Hammond and Grolock, 1876 Arcade Building, St. Louis 1, Missouri. A deposit of $25.00 will be required for such set of plans and specifications.

Hourly wages as set forth by the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations of the State of Missouri will be complied with on this project.

The Board reserves the right to waive informalities in bids and to reject any or all bids.

Signed: F. Burton Sawyer, President,
Board of Education,
Kirkwood School District R-7.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the Office of the Board of Public Service, Room 208 City Hall, until 12 o'clock, noon, C.S.T., December 12, 1961, for the removal of garbage and refuse at Union Market, 700 N. Sixth Street, St. Louis, Missouri, under Letting No. 5991; and for the removal of garbage and refuse at Soulard Market, 730 Carroll Street, St. Louis, Mo., under Letting No. 5992; each for a period of two years from January 1, 1962 to December 31, 1963. Specifications and forms of contract may be obtained at the Office of the Director of Public Utilities, Room 311 City Hall, upon three (3) days' notice and the deposit of $5.00 for each set.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the Office of the Board of Public Service, Room 208 City Hall, until 12 o'clock, noon, C.S.T., December 12, 1961, for furnishing and installing large diameter water mains—parallel to and across the Red Feather Expressway with a branch to Clayton av. and Kingshighway Blvd. for the St. Louis Water Department, City of St. Louis, Mo., under Letting No. 5993. Plans and specifications may be obtained at the Office of the Water Commissioner, 312 City Hall, upon three days' notice and the deposit of $25.00. All labor shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 290.210 to 290.310, inclusive R.S. Missouri, 1959.

Santo Domingo Looting

Looters carrying away belongings of Marco Gomez, Dominican Republic industrialist who was closely associated with assassinated dictator Gen. Rafael Trujillo. With the news that the last of the Trujillo family had left the island, looters broke into homes and businesses of the Trujillo family and their associates. The name Santo Domingo has been restored to the Dominican capital which in 1936 had been named Ciudad Trujillo.

Togetherness

Puppy love takes form of almost human embrace between Missy (left) and Sambo. Devoted to each other, the Chihuahuas are the pets of Mrs. R. C. Dabney of Valdosta, Ga.
—Associated Press Wirephoto.

Nuclear Ship In Short Trip

The nuclear-powered ship Savannah, the world's first atomic merchantman, making short voyage yesterday in the Delaware river at Camden, N.J. The 595-foot, $41,000,000 vessel was moved from one dock to another, making the transfer solely with the aid of tugs. The ship is expected to make its maiden voyage early next year after a secret fueling of its nuclear reactor. Camden skyline is in background in this view taken from the Walt Whitman bridge connecting the New Jersey city with Philadelphia.

Hot Number in a Toy Shop

Chicago firemen watching Christmas doll display—in the line of duty. They answered an alarm in a toy shop and found that a spotlight placed too close to the straw hat on a doll caused it to smolder. The firemen kept a close watch on the situation until the store manager arrived with the keys.

Basket-Making for Campfire Girls

Who Invented Paper?

By Ramon Coffman

A YOUNG READER has sent me this message:

"In your column you spoke of papyrus as the first paper, but we have a history book at school that says the Chinese made the first paper."

During my boyhood it was common to find the statement in histories that the original paper came from China. A few present-day books speak in the same way, but careful research has shown that early Chinese paper was far behind Egyptian paper.

Our word "paper" came from "papyrus" (puh-PY-rus), and you will find this origin traced in any standard dictionary. Papyrus is described as "a kind of paper."

There are many kinds of paper. Among them are letter paper, newsprint, wrapping paper, copy paper, typewriter paper, drawing paper, elephant paper and emperor paper.

The first Chinese paper with a known age goes back less than 1900 years. Claims have been made that paper was used in China 200 years earlier, but there is a question about those claims.

In the British museum I have seen pieces of Egyptian paper (papyrus) several hundred years older than the first known Chinese paper. These sheets contain ancient Egyptian writing.

Sir Flinders Petrie, famed British archeologist, tells of finding "a small papyrus of Amenhotep III." That Egyptian king lived 3300 years ago.

James Breasted, leading American historian and Egyptologist, made it clear that Egyptian paper was used thousands of years before the Chinese had anything of the sort.

One common fact about paper is that it is made from plants or plant products. Egyptian paper came from the stems of papyrus plants (called "paper reeds," though they are classed as sage plants).
